

DR. McALLISTER
KEYNOTE SPEAKER FOR LANGUAGE WEEK

Dr. Quentin O. McAllister, head of the department of modern languages, was the keynote speaker for the Language Week Celebration held on the campus of the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida, February 14-19. His address, entitled "America Awakens to Foreign Language Needs," was the theme of the meeting. The celebration marks the first attempt to make an entire community language-conscious. Dr. McAllister was also a member of the University of Miami Round Table Panel, which discussed "A Second Language for Americans" on an hour-long broadcast over station WGBS, Miami.

MARY BRYAN REID
SINGS SONGS BY JOAN NEIGHBORS

At the recent Festival of Fine Arts in Greensboro, Mary Bryan Reid, a senior voice major from Whitakers, sang four children's songs written by Joan Neighbors, a 1952 graduate of Meredith, who received her B.M. here in 1953. The four songs were "Mice," "Choosing a Kitten," "My Hairy Dog," and "A Squirrel."

Mr. Halsey Stevens of the University of Southern California, guest lecturer for the music division of the Festival of Arts, commented very favorably on the work of Miss Neighbors.

Joan began composing in college and played an original sonata for violin and piano in her graduation recital.

ANOTHER TWIN

In the feature of last issue we overlooked one twin at Meredith. She is Patsy Draughan, a freshman from Clinton, whose twin brother Pat is a senior in Clinton High School. Pat is active in football, basketball, and baseball and after graduation plans to enter Hargraves Military Academy in Virginia.

Mary Ann Chandler
Elected "Student Teacher of the Year"

Mary Ann Chandler, a senior from Burlington, was recently elected as "Student Teacher of the Year at Meredith."

As holder of this title Mary Ann will be the official Meredith delegate to the North Carolina Education Association meeting being held at Needham Broughton High School this week end.

Mary Ann taught Mrs. Hazel Cole's second grade at Thompson School during the fall semester of this year. She has tentative plans to teach in Charlotte next year.

Mary Ann has been active in campus activities. She headed the nominating committee this year and served also as chief counselor.
