

Behind the Scenes

We Recognize Kathy Atkins

Kathy Atkins, a junior history major from Albemarle, N. C., has been active in school activities here at Meredith since her freshman year. Since her pledge to the Philaretian Society, she has been known as a strong Phi.

This year along with being a Dean's List girl, she has been swimming manager on the A.A. Board, vice-president of her class, and assistant hall proctor.

One of her hobbies, participating in different dramatic functions, is evident; for she will be heading the Playhouse next year as President. The two productions already presented this year by the dramatics club have found Kathy in the play cast. She also directed the junior stunt for Stunt Night.

Along with her dramatical interest, Kathy is a friendly, sweet girl active in school life. Through her efforts, she has proved to be an excellent leader. She plans to teach history after graduation.

Home Economics Club Sponsors Egg Hunt

The Home Economics club held an Easter egg hunt for seventeen first and second grade children from the Methodist Orphanage on Thursday, March 31. The little girls and boys played games before they started to hunt for the brightly colored eggs which had been hidden in the court at Meredith.

Amorette Bryant, dressed as the Easter Bunny, ran into the court and contributed greatly to the happiness and excitement of the event.

Rovilla Myers, as chairman of the service committee, was in charge of the arrangements. Among those assisting her were: Pat Swann, Betty Jean Davis, Nancy Hardie, Faye Chandler, Sally Everhart, Rebecca Tramwell, La Rue Taylor, Florette Peele, Sara Outlaw, Virginia Kime, and Corinne Lowery.

Betty Jean Davis and Sarah Outlaw were chosen to represent Meredith College at the North Carolina College Clubs workshop which was held at Mars Hill College April 15 and 16. Miss Brewer, the advisor for our local club, went with the delegates.

Joan Allen, Vivian Stanley, Lela Melvin, and Patty Melvin are living and working in the Mere-Ello apartment for the month of April.

The following officers have been elected to carry on the program of work for 1955-1956: president — Betty Jean Davis, vice-president — Sarah Outlaw, secretary — Florette Peele, treasurer — Ada Faye Chandler, reporter — Pat Jackson. We are sure the club will prosper under the new leaders and we are looking forward to a very successful year.

Mrs. Marsh Attends Convention at Boston

Mrs. Vera Tart Marsh, Registrar, left Saturday for Boston, where she will represent Meredith College at the 41st annual convention of The American Association of Collegiate Registrars, with headquarters at the Sheraton Plaza Hotel. Mrs. Marsh, who is a past president of the North Carolina Association of College Registrars, is a member of the Hospitality Committee and will also assist in the "Clinic for New Registrars."

Meredith Art On Display in Raleigh

Meredith College art students had some of their paintings on exhibit in two art shows here in Raleigh. One of them, sponsored by the Women's Club of Raleigh, was given April 1-6, and the other was the sidewalk art exhibit at Cameron Village, April 15-20. The students who exhibited their paintings were Sally Drake, Nell Rivers, Mary Alice Simmons, Barbara Dickens, Betty Jean Blackman, Mrs. Carol Cooke, Margaret Tucker, Ann Cashwell, Myra Bristol, Mimi Royster, Carolyn Greene, Joyce Bailey, Janice Bergen, Janice Richardson, Martha Ferrell, Jo Ann Selley, and Ada Lou Worth.

minton champ in the singles bracket while Joyce Burns and Betty Vance are the doubles champs! In the ping-pong tourney Betsy Wells came out as the winner in singles and she shared the honor with Jo Ellen Williams in the doubles.

The basketball season has just closed and the honorary varsity has been chosen. Joyce Bailey, Loree Keen, Kay Johnson, and Mary Edna Grimes received this honor. Each year a trophy is given by Miss Cunningham to the most valuable basketball player and this year the coveted honor went to senior Joyce Bailey.

Sociology Club Meets

On March 15 the Sociology Club heard Miss Roberta Lytle, psychiatric social work consultant for the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program, tell about her work. A movie entitled "Alcoholism" was shown. This portrayed the case history of an alcoholic and told how he was helped to recovery through the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program. Pamphlets and other reading materials were distributed among the club members.

On the night of April 4 a group of students went to the county home. Easter songs were sung with the men and women there while Pat Corbett accompanied on her accordion.

Shaw University and St. Augustine students were guests at the April 19th meeting of the Sociology Club. Dr. Elizabeth Vaughan spoke on interesting aspects of her recent stay in Europe.

A. A. NEWS

The A.A. held its installation service in chapel on Thursday, April 14. The installation was an informal preview of the campfire scene which is sure to be a part of the annual picnic party that the old board gives to the new members. The old board discussed the important events of their 1954-55 year. Then one by one, each board member gave up her seat by the campfire in favor of the new girl who will take her place next year. Ruth Jeanne Allen administered the oath and wished the 1955-56 board a successful year.

Two tournaments have been completed in the individual sport area. Joyce Burns is the new bad-

Catherine Cole; treasurer, Carolyn Stonnell; publicity chairman, Charlene Smith.

Sigma Pi Alpha: president, Carolynne Harwell; vice-president, Adair Whisenhunt; secretary, Pat Kerley.

Sociology Club: president, Sue Wilson. Other officers will be elected next fall.

Psi Chi Club: president, Katherine Bright. Other officers will be elected in the fall.

Leah Scarborough, Music Editor

Congratulations to Mary Lois Cadle! Announcement has been made by Dr. Cooper of the presentation of an award of ten dollars given by the Sigma Alpha Iota National Foundation to the Sigma Alpha Iota member of outstanding worth to her chapter. Selection was made by the music faculty and staff on the basis not only of scholarship and financial need, but chiefly on her contributions to Sigma Alpha Iota as aid to her fraternity. We all congratulate you, Mary Lois.

Miss Sari Biro is one of the leading women pianists of our day. She has been a professional pianist ever since, as a small girl in Budapest, she played for neighbors and was paid in candy and cake. This was shortly after the time (at the age of four) when she startled her family by sitting down at the piano and playing from memory a simple piece her older sister had just learned. Miss Biro's program, which she will present on our campus soon, includes works by Bach, Scarletti, Beethoven, Chopin, Kabalevsky, Mendelssohn, and Liszt. We are indeed fortunate to have her as a visiting artist at Meredith.

The annual concert by the Raleigh Piano Ensemble was presented on April 19 under the direction of Mr. Stuart Pratt, head of the piano department. The group includes many of the best pianists in Raleigh and their performance is one of enjoyment for all attending.

What a surprise was awaiting the unlucky person who happened to be standing near one of the bells of the newly-installed bell system for the music building when we returned from spring holidays! It's quite efficient, and assures that every student at least knows what time she should go to class. But we'll miss the music office bell-ringer. She has gone the way of the old lamplighter. As the bell lay in state under its plastic cake cover, flanked by two candles, on Tuesday, we paused to remember the good old days.

Just six more weeks of school! I can't believe it. It's true, I guess, though, since everyone's saying that exams begin in a month. It feels different this semester to realize that it's your last exams, but, to use an old and well-worn expression, "old seniors never die; they just fade away." Although I may have been fading for some time now, this is really the time I become an at-once-forgotten ghost in the issues of the TWIG. I have enjoyed writing what's happening in this busy department for two years, but I don't feel great pangs of regret at leaving because I know that I have a capable successor to report to you. Adair Whisenhunt is the new music editor and will keep you informed — or else I'll haunt her. Being music editor has been a genuine pleasure, but now — bye.
