YWA

At the Young Women's Auxiliary meeting on Wednesday, November 8, the foreign mission study book for the year, Your Guide to Europe, by Rosalind Barker, will be taught. Beginning at 6:30 p.m., the meeting, which will be held in the Hut, will include a supper for all Y.W.A. members.

After the meal, Mrs. R. C. Briggs of Wake Forest will teach the book from seven o'clock until nine. Since Mrs. Briggs has traveled extensively in Europe and visited all the countries discussed in the book, she is especially well qualified to teach the course.

Art Club

President Kay Simpson announced that plans are underway for a sale of student work as a project of the Alpha Phi Tau Art Club. The sale is planned for a date between Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.

For the November 29 meeting of the club, the program will be a panel discussion concerning the problems confronting the artist.

IRC

The International Relations Club heard a representative from State College discuss plans for the Model United Nations Assembly to be held in Raleigh next February. At that time Meredith College will send five delegates to represent a chosen country.

Members of the IRC will serve as hostesses in co-operation with State College for the event.

Granddaughters' Club

At a recent meeting the Granddaughters' Club made plans to raise money for the Needlework Guild in Raleigh which provides clothes for underprivileged children. Plans were also discussed concerning the "family tree" survey which is made on campus. The information will be published in the Alumnae Magazine when the information has been compiled.

Sociology Club

The Sociology Club will present a student program on summer jobs at the November 1 meeting announced Judy Smith, president.

Business Club

Mr. Walter A. Watts of the firm Watts and Byrd, CPA in Raleigh, will be the guest speaker at the November 8 meeting of Tomorrow's Business Women. His talk will follow the club theme for the year "Your Future in Business."

Plans for preparations of the Annual Christmas list by the club members will begin the end of November in order to complete the list in time for sale to Meredith students.

Home Ec Club

At the November 9 meeting of the Home Economics Club a representative from Burton's who decorates store windows will speak to the club members. The meeting will be held at 7:00 in Hunter Hall and will emphasize the club idea for the year "Past Toward the Future." The programs following this theme will educate the members about unusual jobs they can obtain after graduation.

Student League

A stop light at the Meredith College - Hillsboro Street intersection will be the topic under discussion at the November 7 meeting of the Student League of Women Voters. Plans will be completed to take this issue to the City Council and also to discuss student opinion by petition.

Mr. Goff, the new club sponsor, will also speak at the next meeting.

Psychology Club

The Psi Chi Psychology Club has invited Dr. Grady Davis, a member of the religion department at Shaw University to talk at the next club meeting which will be held in first Brewer Parlor. Dr. Davis obtained his doctorate from the Father Divine community in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and will speak to Meredith students on the Father Divine Movement at the meeting of the Psychology Club.

English Club

The Colton English Club met last week to discuss plans to place a magazine subscription in the infirmary. The program for the November 14 meeting will be a talk by Dr. Carlyle Campbell to the club members.

Latin Club

New officers for the school year were elected at the first meeting of the Price Latin Club. Sarah Smith was chosen president; Martha McLester, vice president and program chairman; Kay Burns, Secretary; Catherine Stovall, treasurer; and Brucie Tull, social chairman.

At the second meeting of the club plans were completed for club year books, and ideas for a Christmas Saturnalia were discussed.

Foods Class Takes Local Field Trip

After completing a unit on food preservation, the sophomore foods class took a field trip to Farmer's Market where they saw how foods come in and are stored. They learned about places where the food comes from to the market. The manager, Mr. Graham, gave the class a personally conducted tour, and made it possible for them to get a behind the scene view of food distribution.

The class also went through the Swift and Company plant. They viewed cold storage of meats first hand. At the plant they were given a demonstration on meat cutting.

The trip ended at "Cedar Chest," Miss Ellen Brewer's cabin, for a weiner roast. Jean Davenport and Ann Sorrell were responsible for the food.

Spanish Club Has Halloween Party

"More contact between Spanish American families and our students" is the theme of La Tertulia Spanish Club stated Miss Lucy Ann Neblett, the club advisor. To carry out the theme a Halloween party for the Meredith Spanish Club members, Latin American students from State College, and some Latin American families was given in the Hut on October 18.

As a project for the year, the Spanish Club is sponsoring exchange correspondence. Miss Neblett sent the names and addresses of the students taking Spanish to a monthly publication, Mundo Hispanico, in Madrid, Spain. The purpose of this project is to better relations between students in Spanish and English speaking countries.

In addition to writing letters in Spanish, the students have been talking to two girls visiting in Raleigh from Columbia, South America. Adelaida Lopez and Norela Madrinan plan to stay in the United States until next June and at present are attending second year Spanish classes at Meredith so they can learn the English language. Norela is the sister of Mrs. Luis Camacho whose husband is studying at State.
