

Meredith Wins Trophies and Has Ceremony at N. C. State Horse Show

By MACKI RUDISELL

The annual event of the Meredith College class at the Lions Club-sponsored Raleigh State Championship Horse Show was handsomely filled by a dozen riders and horses from Meredith's stables. The Meredith class was on Thursday night, September 24, of the four-day show which ran from September 23-26.

Six saddle seat and six hunt seat contestants vied for ribbons in the winner, Rita Goodwin, who rode Eve's Contract, was the recipient of the Zeno Martin Challenge Trophy. The trophy must be won three years by the same person for her to retain its possession. Second in the saddle seat section was Lynn Abraham on Crebilly's Lou; third, Lynn Wainscott on Mr. Sunshine; fourth, Jane Hendricks on Rosy Future; fifth, Murilla Oates on Honor Student; and sixth, Ann Partin on Ace-in-the-Hole.

Hunt seat winner was Karen Galbraith, a junior transfer student from Sullins. Karen's horse, Best Man, which will be boarded at the Meredith stables, arrived from Durham Thursday in time for the show that night. Second place in the hunt seat division was Lynn Grumbles on Bourbon Street, a hunter owned by Mrs. Lila Phillips Bozick, who teaches hunt seat riding at Meredith. Third was Edie Ridgeway, a Raleigh town student, on Lake Champlain; and fourth was Janie Ostrom on Yellow Wolf. Janie was the only Meredith freshman in the class.

Also on Thursday night, the ceremony of Silver Mac's retirement from the show ring was held. The announcer read the following account:

"Tonight with respect and admiration, we recognize the retirement of the noteworthy Silver Mac. Sired by Grey Mac, this walk-trot gelding has been the recipient of literally hundreds of ribbons and has never been out of the money. Over the years he has served as a mount in Three-Gaited, pleasure, and equitation classes. Only four years ago, Silver Mac's equitation rider received fifth place at Madison Square Garden competing in a class of 31 riders.

To present Mac with a token of the pride Meredith College takes in his faithful service is Mrs. Zeno Martin. Zeno Martin, once business manager of Meredith College, saw the opening of the Meredith College Stables. Silver Mac was one of the first horses to be used by the students. Meredith graduates of the late 40's remember Silver Mac. Some of them learned to ride on him.

Now 24 years of age, Silver Mac is duly honored as he retires from the show ring. He continues to serve the college and student riders at Meredith. Proudly we salute Mac with this, his final appearance in the ring. Mac was presented a horseshoe of red carnations despite his reluctance to accept it. The announcer commented that Mac, just like people, hated the thought of retiring. Though he will not show any more, we shall still use Mac here at school for riding classes.

Mrs. Mary Mackay Edwards, our Meredith riding instructor, rode Rare Gold Again in two three-gaited classes in which the mare placed fourth. In a class for three-gaited horses with natural tails, Belle, ridden by Rita Goodwin, won fourth place; and Crafty Contract, ridden by Lynn Abraham, won seventh among nineteen competitors. Crafty Contract, ridden by Jane Hendricks, was the Champion Pleasure Horse chosen from a huge open class. Mr. Sunshine, the Meredith horse which won the pleasure championship last year, won fifth place.

Meredith graduates of 1964, Nicky Childrey and Jerry Lou Holbert, came to Raleigh to attend the horse show and to revisit Meredith friends. Nancy von Elm, last year a Meredith sophomore, showed her Morgan gelding, Mr. Showhawk, from Virginia Beach, Virginia. Mr. Showhawk won second and third places in two Morgan classes.

For the riders and horses from Meredith, the week of the State Horse Show was a busy and exciting one. For Silver Mac, the show was a big occasion. Now all are back into the "harness" of work, but the gala moments have left lasting memories.
