First film rolls

Greetings, movie fans! Welcome to Meredith's first movie. To open our season we have chosen a movie, and a star, that so many of you have asked for - ON A CLEAR DAY YOU CAN SEE FOREVER, with Barbara Streisand. It is the story of drab Daisy Gamble (Streisand) who, under the hand of hypnotist (Yves Montand), discovered that in a former life, she was Melinda Tentrees, lady of Regency England. Co-starring with Montana and Streisand are Jack Nicholson and Bob Newhart.

The musical also boasts an important group of behind-the-scenes artists. The book and lyrics by Alan Jay Lerner, famous for "Camelot" and "My Fair Lady." Burton Lane wrote the music, as he did for "Finian's Rainbow." But Vincente Minelli, the director, deserves highest praise. Minelli, one of the greats of "the Golden Age of Musicals," also directed such memorable musicals as "Meet Me In St. Louis," "An American In Paris," and "Gigi." He is the most noted for his fanciful dream sequences, such as the "American in Paris" ballet. But, however great these men, Streisand deserves all the applause for this movie. Here in her third film, she shows greater talent here as an actress than in her previous movies. She slips from the 20th to the 19th century, from dumpy Daisy to magnificent Melinda, with remarkable ease. And her singing, as always, is simply great.

ON A CLEAR DAY is a wonderfully enjoyable movie. Its costume scenes (filmed at the Royal Pavillion in Brighton, England) are rich and colorful. Some of its musical numbers are unforgettable, such as Montand singing "Come Back to Me" from the top of the PanAm building in New York. With Streisand's immense talent, ON A CLEAR DAY is not to be missed. See it Sunday night, 6 and 8 p.m., at the Continuing Education Auditorium. Season tickets will be on sale. Popcorn will be on sale for five cents.

Minutes to be printed

Editor's note: Judicial, Interdormitory and Legislative minutes will be printed in the TWIG from now on in an effort to make the campus more aware of their function and effectiveness.

Judicial Board minutes
Joyce Montgomery called the meeting to order at 6 p.m. on Sept. 8. All members were present.

Joyce gave each member a booklet which contained Judicial Board Procedures.

Ruth Edwards was elected vice-chairman of the Judicial Board. Her nomination was seconded and passed unanimously.

Two girls came before the Board after being charged with violation of the college drug policy.

A pocketbook, which contained 7½ grams of marijuana, was found, and it was assumed that the marijuana belonged to the two girls. However, due to lack of evidence, the two girls were found not guilty.

A committee was formed to work on outdated articles in the handbook. The members of this committee are: Silda Wall, Vicki Jayne and Ruth Edwards.

Interdorm Board minutes

Sue Vehorn called the regular meeting of the Interdorm Board to order at 6 p.m., Sept. 12 in the SGA office.

All members were present.

Two students appealed their automatic calldowns received on Aug. 29, 1977 for being six minutes late.

They were on a double date and left where they were at 12:30 p.m. One student has breathing problems and had an attack in the car on the way home. They stopped the car to try to get her breathing normally again and ended up arriving six minutes late.

One girl had to carry the other girl up three flights of stairs after they arrived and then she spent the night in the infirmary.

Lisa Davis moved that their calldowns be dropped because of good reason. The motion was seconded and passed.

The meeting adjourned at 6:25 p.m.
