THE LAW SCHOOL ADMISSION SERVICE (LSAT) preparation booklet is now available, free, in Career Services. It contains general information regarding the LSAT and a sample test. This agency has also provided us with an excellent 20 minute filmstrip explaining the law school admission process and the easiest approach for students to take. No appointment necessary. Simply ask the office to set it up for you to view.

ARMED FORCES HEALTH PROFESSIONS SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM - Full tuition for up to four years, plus the cost of books, fees and laboratory expenses. Also, $485 per month with annual cost of living increases. Must be a U.S. citizen enrolled or accepted for enrollment in an approved school of medicine or osteopathy. This is a two-year Air Force service obligation for the first two years you are in the program. Thereafter, you'll have a six month obligation for every six months participation. Further information available in Office of Career Services.

THE JUNIOR YEAR IN NEW YORK PROGRAM is designed to offer students outside the metropolitan area a carefully planned set of academic, social and personal experiences that will enrich their degree programs and enlarge their understanding of American society through interaction with the cosmopolitan international city of New York. Visiting students will be housed in comfortable single rooms at the Hunter College Residence. Besides accomplishing a full year of credit-bearing college work, they will participate in a variety of planned social and cultural events.

In the Arts: Students take specific courses in the departments of art, film, dance, music, and theatre, and engage in off-campus projects in appropriate host institutions.

In Urban Leadership Training: The core of the Junior Year student's experience is an internship placement in a city-based public or non-profit agency offering direct and responsible participation on the front lines of urban policy, service, or planning.

Education Of The Gifted and Talented: Provides opportunities for participants to explore and apply the theories of teaching the gifted and talented through direct participation with them in both academic and non-academic settings.

In Communications: Pre-professional training ground for those who wish to develop skills in the communication arts for possible careers in industry, government, education, the media, and a variety of cultural and social services.
