

Housekeeper of the month

by Jenny Claire Beavers

Jerry Bynum, Director and Manager of Housekeeping, has announced Meredith's first Housekeeper of the Month - Anne Ruth Smith.

Out of approximately 30 housekeepers who maintain the appearance of the 24 campus buildings, Anne Ruth became September's honorary housekeeper because she did an outstanding job as the housekeeper of Brewer.

Mr. Bynum feels that Housekeeper of the Month is indeed an honor which reaps personal benefits other than recognition and a monetary award. To receive the honor, the housekeeper must exhibit a personal attitude toward her job and must do her best in the upkeep of her designated area.

Anne Ruth, a delightful woman who deserves another award for her friendliness, has worked at Meredith for four years. She feels the honor is a wonderful idea, and she has enjoyed being recognized. Although she was surprised and shocked about being honored, Anne Ruth, says that she was recognized because of her good behavior as well as keeping the building clean, proving to be dependable, and getting along well with others.

During this month, Anne Ruth has proudly worn a bright red pin which reads "Housekeeper of the Month". She deserves a sincere congratulations from all of us, so please take the time to express your appreciation.

CAMPUS DEBATES ON PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION TO BE HELD NATIONWIDE OCT. 21

Aiming to help students cast a better informed vote on Nov. 6th, the National Student Campaign for Voter Registration (NSCVR) today announced plans to organize simultaneous forums on the Presidential elections at over 100 campuses on Oct. 21.

The campus debates, collectively titled "Showdown '84", will be held immediately before or after the nationally televised debate between Walter Mondale and Ronald Reagan. The Presidential debate will also be aired on large screen televisions during this events.

"Students are strongly concerned about the issues, but are often uninformed about the candidates' positions on those issues and the implications of those stands," observed Gary Kalman, a senior at Clark (MA) University and NSCVR chairperson. "These forums are designed to augment this campaign's personality politics with substantive discussion of the issues."

The campus debates will feature prominent individuals analyzing campaign issues such as the arms race, the economy, civil rights, the environment, women's issues, and education policy.

Co-sponsors with NSCVR of the debate include Project Vote, Southwest Voter Registration Education Project, Human SERVE, United States Public Interest Research Group (U.S.PIRG), United States Student Association, The Difference, American Association of University Women, Public Citizen, Democracy Project, Public Citizen, Environmental Safety, and the Children's Foundation.

The National Student Campaign for Voter Registration is a non-profit organization which conducts voter registration and voter education campaigns across the country. A project of the student-directed Public Interest Research Groups (PIRGs), NSCVR was founded this February at a conference of 1500 student leaders from 42 states.

Students interested in organizing "Showdown '84" debates at their campus should contact NSCVR at 617-357-9016.

Cornhuskin tradition broken

By Carlissa Oakley

The tradition that only seniors are allowed to make a grand entrance into the courtyard on Cornhuskin' Day was broken by the class of 1983 during their junior year.

This year the seniors are requesting that the grand entrance be restricted to senior's once again.

This year the seniors and juniors will submit their entrance plans to Buzz Mann and Julie Bell for their approval.

A meeting was held Thursday, Sept. 20th, with Sherry Gradford, Buzz Mann, Julie Bell and Rhoda Sowers to discuss a compromise for Cornhuskin' '84.

Cornhuskin' '84 will be the last year that the juniors will be allowed to make a grand entrance. In the future, it will be a senior privilege.

New Beta Zeta members inducted

On Monday, September 17, ten new members were inducted into the Beta Zeta chapter of Sigma Alpha Tota, a professional music fraternity for women. Those inducted were: Angela Boyd, Penelope Jauria, Sherry Henderson, Mary Dixon, Donna Metts, Kimberly Harris, Julie Reid, Nancy Shore, Lisa Strouth Rogers, and Lilitia Willets.

Qualifications for Sigma Alpha Tota are faculty recommendations, an overall grade point average of 3.0 and an overall grade point average of 3.2 in music courses. EAI is responsible for receptions of faculty and guest music recitals and graduating recitals.

U. OF NEBRASKA-LINCOLN female students won't find many "ladies night" specials at local bars, says the student newspaper. After the state Equal Opportunity Commission issued warnings, several campus area bars dropped their special price nights for females. Others continue, but under names such as "Person's Night" or "Skirts Night."

A BOYCOTT OF COORS BEER is under study by the U. of Kansas student government. Already, the KU residence hall association and Panhellenic Association are boycotting the Colorado product because of allegedly racist remarks by its chairman, William K. Coors. Before student government makes its mind up, however, two students will visit the Coors plant, courtesy of the brewery.
