Meredith Netters sweep past St. Andrews

by Lisa Britt

The Meredith College tennis team did not face the usual challenge as it traveled to Laurinburg April 3 to play St. Andrews Presbyterian College. The Angels pulled a clean sweep of the match as St. Andrews was unable to win even one set. The 9-0 victory for Meredith boosts their record to 5-2 while St. Andrews falls to 1-4.

"It's usually a more challenging match," commented Coach Jay Massey. "But she (St. Andrews' coach) graduated a lot of her girls last year." Coach Massey went on to say that many of their past matches were usually close, 5-4, going either way. But this was Meredith's season to win.

Theresa Duffy eliminated Judy Baxter 6-2, 6-0 while Barbara Bulla defeated Diane Jones 6-0, 6-2. Pam Fisher breezed past Melanie Wrenn 6-0, 6-3 and Kinney Neal won over Kelly Aiken 6-2, 6-1.

Elizabeth Hornthal and Laura Cochran each gave up just one game in their singles matches over Amy Heavner and Barbara Caras, respectively.

On the doubles court, Meredith dominated equally well. Theresa and Barbara defeated Baxter and Wrenn 6-2, 6-1. Laura and Elizabeth teamed up to defeat Jones and Aiken 6-1, 6-3. To round out the victories, Kinney and Pam gave up one game to Heavner and Caras and won 6-1, 6-0.

The Angels draw the spring tennis season to a close with their last matches this week. Today the Angels are on the road to Buies Creek to face Campbell University. Their final match of the season will be tomorrow at 2:30 against Salem College. The match will be played on the Meredith courts and everyone is encouraged to attend.
