Kappa Nu Sigma Inducts New Members

On September 26, 1985 the Kappa Nu Sigma Honor Society inducted eight new members: Christine Albro, Sandra Close, Holly Jenkins, Nancy Ratcliff, Susan Skinner, Melanie Stuart, Nancy Ward, and Sally Woodard.

Established in 1923, Kappa Nu Sigma serves to promote and reward scholarship at Meredith College. Kappa Nu Sigma stands for these three Greek words - beauty, intelligence and sound-

Only juniors and seniors are eligible for membership, with elections occurring three times during the academic year. Students must have completed 90 or more credit hours with a GPA of 3.5 or more on the total hours attempted, or 75 to 90 credit hours with a GPA of 3.6 or more. Graduating seniors selected in the spring must have a GPA of 3.4 or greater on all hours attempted.

Through Kappa Nu Sigma the college administers the Helen Price Scholarship Fund, from which two scholarships are awarded in the freshman and the sophomore classes respectively. This year Kappa Nu Sigma awarded Lisa Powers, a sophomore and Mari Jon Owens, a freshman, for their achievements. This is the second year that Lisa has received this award.

T.B.W. Update

by Kathy A. White

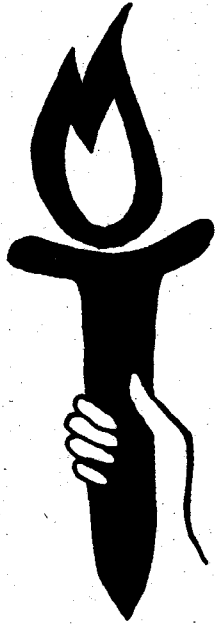

We had an excellent turnout for the first T.B.W. meeting but for any of you who did not attend, you missed out on the chance to hear a very interesting and educational program. Marilyn Jean Calhoun, Attorney at Law, was our speaker for the evening.

Ms. Calhoun attended law school at Campbell University. She worked as a partner in a Raleigh law firm before opening up her own law firm. She has been quite successful, particularly in the area of family law.

Ms. Calhoun stressed that law was not limited to the courtroom and that it was an excellent background for other jobs. She also offered helpful hints to Meredith students such as looking at your personal goals and deciding what specific things you do best, taking advantage of speech courses, and getting exposure to the business world in several areas.

The next meeting of TBW will be on Wednesday, October 23rd at 7:30 in room 214 Harris. Our speaker will be Sue Ann Schoonderwoerd who is a graduate of Meredith and is employed with MONY Financial Services as a financial specialist. She will explain what a financial specialist does and how she got into this field. Everyone is welcome to attend so please do not miss out on the chance to hear another interesting speaker from the business world!
