Provisor was born in Brooklyn, N.Y. in 1946 and grew up in Cincinnati, Ohio. She attended the University of Michigan and the University of Cincinnati, and received her bachelor's and master's degrees from the San Francisco Art Institute. Formerly on the faculties of the University of Texas at Austin and the San Francisco Art Institute, she has had solo shows at the New Orleans Museum of Art,

On Sunday, Nov. 17, Robin Winters will present a combined performance and talk that will offer additional insights about his work as a painter and performance artist. The free program is scheduled at 3 p.m. in the auditorium.

The exhibition and related activities are supported by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts.

Museum hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday; 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday; 12 noon to 5 p.m. Sunday; closed Monday and Tuesday. There is no admission fee.

Center Stage Season Opens

Spalding Gray, John Guare, David Mamet, Wendy Wasserstein, Samm-Art Williams and Michael Weller have written dramatic adaptations of Chekhov stories which range from knockabout farce to intensive metaphysical conjecture.

Immediately following the performance is the Center Stage Opening Night Gala sponsored by and held at the Raleigh Hilton on Hillsborough Street. All patrons of ORCHARDS are invited to attend this festive celebration.

On Sunday evening the actors return to the stage in a delightful version of Shakespeare's pastoral comedy AS YOU LIKE IT. The Bard's classic has been masterfully reinvented with a delightful freshness and vitality.

Director Mervyn Willis, who has an impressive range of credits in the United States and Great Britain spanning classical repertory to experimental theatre, has done a fabulous job in making the play work for a modern audience. The Elizabethan English is easily understandable because of the actor's perfect diction.

The incredible sets, props and costumes are unforgettable. A magical, multicolored world, along with marvelous music composed by Jeffrey Taylor captures the modern imagination by evoking a fantastical time and place of the past. The Acting Company's residence in Raleigh is an unparalleled theatrical event not to be missed by Triangle area theatre enthusiasts!

Both performances will begin at 8:00 PM in Stewart Theatre located on the second floor of the NCSU Student Center. Tickets are $14.00 for the general public and $7.00 for NCSU students. Tickets are available at the Center Stage Box Office (733-3104) Monday through Friday, 10:00 AM - 6:00 PM. CHOICE, MASTERCARD and VISA telephone orders are accepted. They can also be purchased for cash only at Ladds' Book Shop in the North Ridge Shopping Center in Raleigh (878-4404) which is open 10:00 AM - 9:00 PM Monday through Saturday and 12:00 Noon - 5:00 PM on Sunday.
