This message is of love, appreciation and thankfulness to friends who know the true meaning of the word. Wanda — for not taking no as an answer to taxi service! Sandra — for BTS homemade bread and chocolate. Gaye — for being in the neighborhood and stopping by! Gina — for poetry reading, support and a slumber party! Just to name a few. Jonelle

To Mary Hazel: for flowers . . . and for flowers! for guarding my brownies, for secretarial work, for financial advice, for counseling services, for letter writing (an effort on your part), for housing trinkets, for Cornhuskin' with me, for late nights, for unconditional love, and for being superglue. You are what has held me together. Love, Jonelle

Give The Past For Christmas Present.

Last Printing!

A Literary and Visual Celebration of North Carolina's Quadricentennial from BB&T.

Capture the Tar Heel spirit and Old North State heritage of the past 400 years in the perfect Christmas gift for friend, family or business associate.

Contemporary

North Carolina writers and photographers have contributed to this enchanting collection of poignant essays and over 250 color and black-and-white photographs. This unique journal includes reflections of our state's heritage in the arts, business, athletics, education, cuisine, religion, agriculture and politics with an extensive time line lacing it all together.

However, this is one bit of history that will not repeat itself as this is the last printing of our book. Copies are available for $37.50 plus tax in any BB&T lobby. It's a Christmas present from the past that you'll enjoy for years to come. Get yours today.
