Phi Alpha Theta inducts new members in fall ceremony

Phi Omicron, Meredith's Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, held its fall initiation on September 29 inducting six new members. Phi Alpha Theta is an international honor society for history and is prestigious throughout the academic community.

Kathleen Folger, Sara Beth Fulford, Kimberly Harrleson, Mary Helen House,

Patricia Oates, and Susan McKeithan were initiated into the society at the fall ceremony. For initiation a student must have a 3.3 GPA in at least 12 hours of history and a 3.1 overall GPA.

After the ceremony, a dinner was held for the new initiates and the members of the society in the Chapel Commons Room.

Historic costume collection to be compiled by home economics department

The Department of Home Economics is excited about developing a Historic Costume Collection comprised of apparel and accessories from all time periods. If you have any articles from your present or past wardrobe that you would like to contribute, we would very much appreciate your donation. Clothing can be brought to Dr. Diane Hicks or any other Home Economics professor. If you have any questions, contact her at 829-8412.
