Mayoral Candidates Discuss Recycling

by Krista Holloman

Meredith Recycling Organization of Meredith College sponsored a recycling forum in Kresge Auditorium Tuesday, September 12 at 7 p.m.

Candidates for Mayor of Raleigh, incumbent Mayor Upchurch and City Councilman Charles Meeker, were speakers at this event.

The two candidates addressed such issues as past recycling efforts in the city, the importance of recycling, future plans for recycling in Raleigh, and how Meredith and other colleges fit into these plans.

Both candidates feel the topic of recycling is an important issue in November's election and to our nation.

Upchurch remarked, "Raleigh does not face a landfill crisis now, although we will in the near future."

Raleigh is considered to be slow in implementing a city-wide recycling effort. Both mayoral candidates agree on this, as does the City Council of Raleigh.

Meeker stated that Raleigh is "way behind, way behind on recycling."

While Raleigh has been rather stagnant in the past as far as recycling is concerned, plans are currently being made for a city-wide recycling program.

On October 1, a pilot program on recycling will begin in the city. Residents involved in this program will put their goods that are to be
