Cornhuskin' Week Plans and Schedule Announced

by: Christy Thomas
MRA Historian

Once again, Cornhuskin' will take place on the first Thursday in November. This year, November 2 is the big day. MRA co-chairs, Kitty Pate and Samantha Gunter, are really excited about this year's competition. The co-chairs for each class are as follows:

Freshmen class: Mandy Dill and Jill Barlow

Sophomore class: Martha Enscore and Mary Snow Burnette

Junior class: Lesha Letterman and Beth Ragsdale

Senior class: Catherine Martin and Kelly Zwicknagel

The week will start with the Big Sis/Little Sis Bonfire on the softball field, Sunday, November 29 at 10 p.m. This is a fun time spent singing songs and roasting marshmallows around a bonfire. The Cornhuskin' competition follows a picnic in the courtyard and consists of a parade, a song, a tall tale, and a hog-calling skit, all of which are related to the themes of each class. The classes are also judged on apple-bobbing and corn-shucking during the picnic prior to Cornhuskin'. Classes will also be judged on class attendance during the Cornhuskin' week and on the design of class sweatshirts and how well they relate to the theme. For more information on Cornhuskin', talk with your class co-chairs. They are there to make sure you know what Cornhuskin' is all about. Remember, Cornhuskin' is a time of class competition, but it's also a time of class unity, friendships, and a lot of laughter and fun!

Don't forget! Class participation is judged also, so mark your calendars and go to your practices.
