

MEMORIAL DAY.....

Warren & Jeff were surprised to receive such a big "Thank You" card from the employees. We really appreciate the extra day off on Memorial Day. (With Pay!)

LAUGH TIME.....

EXECUTIVE TYPES:

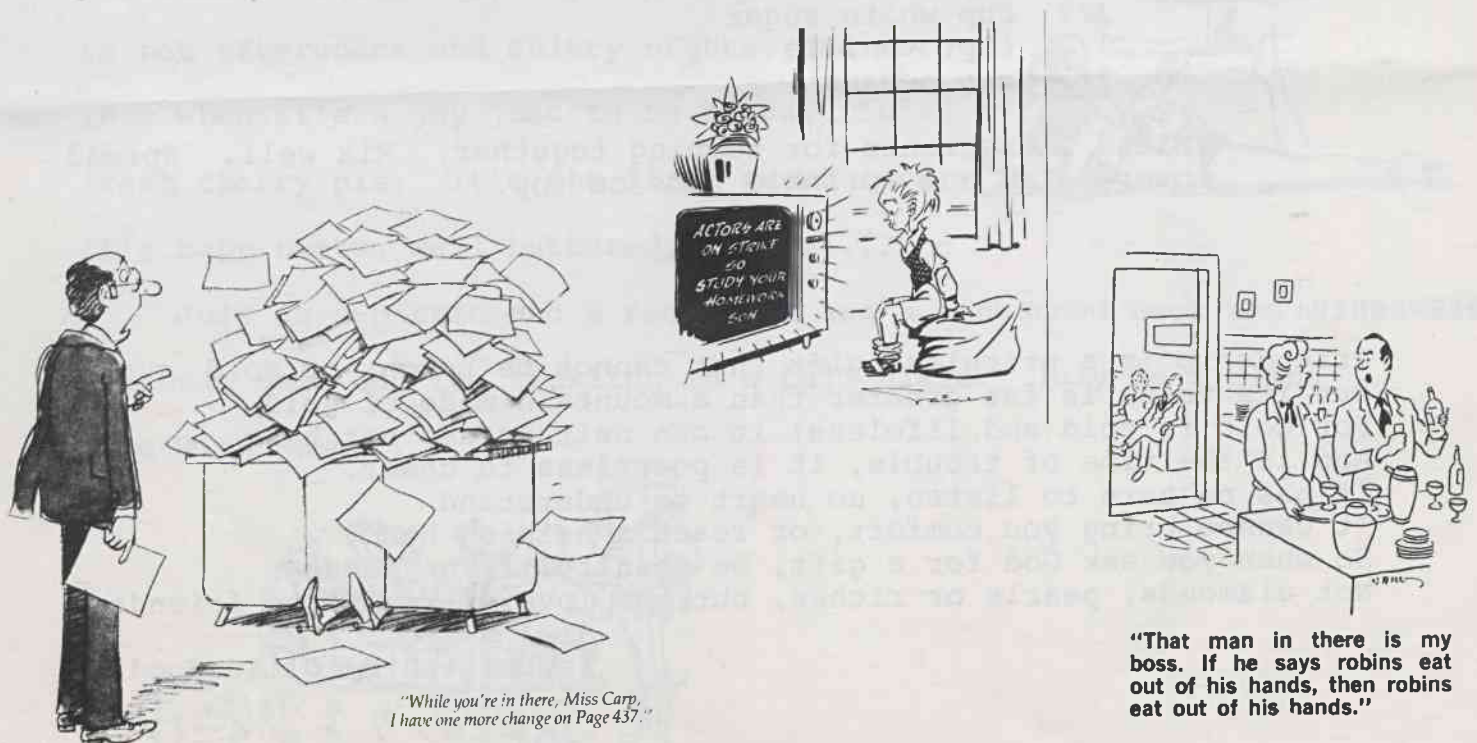

- Ulceroidal - one who worries
- Adenoidal - one who yells
- Thyroidal - one who rushes around
- Hemorrhoidal - one who just sits on the situation and waits for it to clear up.

GOOD OLD WAYS(?)

"Modern girls are different" Grandpa insisted
 His granddaughter disagreed. "I don't see how, Gramps."
 "Well, take blushing. Girls your age don't blush at all. In my day, they blushed at the drop of a hat."
 "Gosh, Gramps! What did you say to them?"

FINISHED

Graduation ceremonies at one particular school were quite lengthy, for the commencement speaker droned on and on and on.
 Finally, he paused for a drink of water and someone shouted, "Amen?"

"While you're in there, Miss Carp, I have one more change on Page 437."

"That man in there is my boss. If he says robins eat out of his hands, then robins eat out of his hands."
