

Rock jetty life is another field trip and will introduce marine plants and animals that survive the pressures of rocky intertidal habitats. These trips will be July 13 at noon and at 11 a.m. July 27.

Turtle trips - nighttime outings to observe the egg laying behavior and hatching of loggerhead sea turtles are on the schedule. These trips will occur July 1, July 30 and August 28. These trips are through the courtesy of Camp LeJeune Marine base and will include a pre-trip talk about these turtles and the Marines' role in conservation of this species. The activities begin at 7 p.m. and may last until 2 a.m. A special night dive will be held July 9 at 9:30 p.m. This night trip is limited to 6 people, and they must have already taken a previous day diving trip.

In mid July a month long series of talks entitled "Man and The Sea Coast" will begin. Some topics will include "North Carolina's Maritime Heritage", "Cultural History of the Sea Coast", "Environmental Science of the Seacoast", and "The Literature of Cultural Contact and the Seacoast". Check time for these lectures with the Center.

There will be additional talks this summer including lectures on whales and hurricanes. There will be a new display featuring a large tracking chart, weather data, and eventually a functioning weather station. This display is made possible through cooperation of NOAA and the United States Weather Service.

The Good Stuff Gang will continue its monthly art and craft shows on July 23 and 24, and August 20 and 21. Watercolor enthusiasts may sign up for a workshop with Keith Rose, President of the Watercolor Society of N.C. These dates are July 18, 19 and 20. There is a fee for this activity which is co-sponsored by the Carteret County Arts Council.

These special activities are just a few of the many things taking place at the Center. Films of general interest on a variety of topics will be shown hourly every morning and afternoon beginning at 10 a.m. and ending at 3 p.m. The regular 7:30 p.m. Thursday evening Sand Dollar Film series will continue through September.

So please avail yourself of these many opportunities to learn more of your environment. Hours for the Center are weekdays 9 to 5; Saturdays 10 to 4; and Sundays 1 to 5. Center sponsored activities are free and if you have questions or want more information call 726-0121. N.C.

HIGHLIGHTS OF ANNUAL MEETING OF PINE KNOLL ASSOCIATION, INC., June 11, 1977 at Bogue Banks Country Club. At this 11th annual meeting, about 150 members were present. Annual reports were given by the secretary, Elizabeth Ames, who also gave the treasurer's report. Fred Korff, Chairman of the Auditing Committee reported that the findings of his committee were in order. Dr. Yaeck, President, reminded the members that at the last annual meeting he had appointed a committee to review the Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions - Larry Jerome, Chairman, James Redfield, and Kenneth Kirkman - and asked that members having any suggestions for revision please contact any one of these gentlemen.

President also announced that a Continuing Dredging Committee has been appointed chaired by Kenneth Hoffmeyer, with members Kenneth Doremus and Peter Comar.

Chairman of the Canal Committee, Ed Crumley, gave a report of his committee's work for the year. Cooperation of owners contacted to bulkhead has been great. Work is progressing, although slower than Mr. Crumley had anticipated.

Director Gertrude Warner reported for the Parks Committee - we all know the big job that committee has done, but perhaps some of you did not know that we have a swing set in our possession now and it will be erected shortly for the enjoyment of you "big kids" and the visiting grandchildren.

Director Richard Mansfield, Chairman of the Waterways and Embayment Areas Committee read his report which indeed showed that that committee had worked extremely hard in an effort to establish rules and regulations agreeable to all.

In the absence of Dr. Wm. Martin, Robert Armstrong gave the summary of the work which the Architectural Control Committee had done.

Director Wm. Mueller, Finance Chairman, presented the Budget for the coming year and also a proposed one for each year including 1981/82.

Dr. Yaeck expressed appreciation in behalf of the Board of Directors and the membership for the work the retiring Directors had done during their terms of office - Gertrude Warner, William Ford, Curtis Johnson, and Richard Mans-
