

An 11-year old cat, Tabitha, also is in residence. Bob graduated from the United States Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, New York and held a commission in the U.S. Navy. He and Peg are looking forward now to the 35th anniversary of his class. They have two daughters, a son and one grandson.

Shirley and Luke Hargroves are settling into their new home at 117 Mimosa Drive. For many years they vacationed at Nags Head, and during a visit with friends at Atlantic Beach they toured Pine Knoll Shores and found a lot they liked. Luke had worked for the Travelers Insurance Company at West Hartford, Connecticut, where he was acquainted with Ed Crumley. He retired as director of General Agencies. Shirley managed the junior department of a retail store there. She has a large collection of bottles, likes to read and garden. Luke also gardens and has acquired a motor boat which he hopes to enjoy. They have one son in California, and another son, a professor at the University of Virginia, at Charlottesville, a married daughter and one grandson in Springfield, Illinois.

Gussie and Ed Peters moved from University Park, Maryland, into their new home at 241 Oak leaf Drive on July 16. After serving in the Navy during World War II, Ed worked as a mechanical engineer with the United States Navy Underwater Weapons Systems. He enjoys golf, fishing and wood working, and is building a workshop in his garage. They both jog, play bridge and ride bikes. Gussie worked in retailing for 18 years with the May Company and later with Jelleff. She enjoys gardening and reading. They were visiting a daughter in Raleigh and decided to come down to the ocean. While staying at the Ramada Inn they drove through Pine Knoll Shores and saw a lot for sale. They liked it, called the realtor and bought the lot immediately. Ed's mother lives with them, and while she is 88 years old she is quite active and enjoys walking their dog, Benjamin. Their daughter in Raleigh has three sons and their son in Denver has three sons. - - - - Olga Hedrick

The fish ain't bitin' in this heat,
The sea's too warm for swimmin';
My boat's laid up, my house is full
Of tea and cards and wimmin'.

It's much too early in the day
To take a nip - I'm certain
The grass needs mowin', but the thought
Just starts my back ahurtin'.

So what's to do? Go spread that stuff
To stop those weeds from creepin'?
I think, instead, I'll rest a bit
And do a little sleepin'!
