

a polishing machine.

With their polished stones they have made many pieces of jewelry. Mary said, "It became too crowded on the beaches of New Jersey, where we had beach homes, so we began looking for an uncrowded place. Through a Wall Street Journal advertisement we learned about Pine Knoll Shores." They came looking for a place to retire, bought a lot and built their home three years ago. Mary taught school until December 22 to complete 30 years of teaching. She has written short stories and two novels and hopes to do more writing. They have three boys and a girl and all are married. A son is in Atlanta, and another son and daughter live in New Jersey. Another son is in a Phd. program in physical chemistry at the University of Florida at Gainesville. They have four grandchildren, two boys and two girls.--Olga Hedrick planter and spread them out. The Garden Club will thank you for the help...Bowlers...If you would like to bowl with Pine Knoll Shores' Ancient Mariners and haven't as yet established an average, you are welcome to join the group on Monday afternoons at Cherry Point where arrangements will be made for you. But let Ray Szypukski know in advance...Don't forget to pick up your license plate, or stickers, for your automobiles. They must be in place by February 15... and finally... when you hear the fire siren or hear the ambulance go by, DO NOT call the County Communications Center on the emergency number for information. Calls of this type have multiplied greatly in the past few months to the point where the communications system has been jammed blocking out real emergency calls. Help yourself and others by staying off the telephone!

A NEW POLICEMAN... Floyd Emile Willis, a native of Pas Cagonla, Miss., but raised in Carteret County, has joined Pine Knoll Shores Police Department. He graduated from East Carteret High School in 1975, and then joined the U.S. Army. He served three years in Bamberg, Germany patrolling the communist border of East Germany. He was honorably discharged in November 1979, having been awarded the Good Conduct Medal and expert rifle and pistol awards. He and his wife Jessica reside in Atlantic Beach. We are happy to have him with us.
