

100 foot section was rezoned to recreational to provide access to the beach for residents.

Commissioner Johnson reported the Rescue Squad had elected officers for the coming year: Harry Schlimper was elected chief and Bob Ames was elected assistant Chief.

The Board also took note of the fact that there presently are 17 single family residences under construction in Pine Knoll Shores along with three condominium units.

Finally, a committee was appointed to study the feasibility of the town purchasing the water company. The committee includes Aubrey Johnson, Bill Dixon, Ed Crumley, Frank Johnson and Gil Millington.

PK ASSOCIATION Members of the Pine Knoll Association held their annual meeting Saturday, June 12, at the Bogue Banks Country Club. Elected as NAMES DIRECTORS directors for three year terms were Alfred Wolfe, Joan Libby and Kenneth Haller; for a two-year term, Hayes McCulley. The auditing committee for the next year was Eric Hassel, chairman, and Fred Korff and William Macdonald.

Following the regular membership meeting the Board of Directors met and elected Bill Bosse as president and Ken Haller as vice president.

GARDEN CLUB The Pine Knoll Shores Garden Club held its annual year-end luncheon meeting at the Rex Restaurant on Wednesday, June 9 and installed ENDS SEASON officers for the next season. Officers for next year are Louise Jolitz, president; Irene Doremus, vice president; Lenora Roberson, second vice president; Betty Hickey, recording secretary; Shirley Hargroves, corresponding secretary, and Gussie Peters, treasurer.

Installing officer was Faye Newby, of Newport, and third vice president of North Carolina Garden Clubs, Inc. Other guests included Elizabeth Ames, honorary life president of the club, and Joan Greene staff writer for the Carteret News Times. New members Alice Jean Noble and Jean Zumbach were welcomed into the club.

During the business meeting outgoing President Martha Hare announced plans for a plant propagation workshop to be conducted by Newell Haller at her home on Walnut Circle on June 16. The members also voted to sponsor an "Adopt and Garden" of aucuba at Carteret General Hospital. This is a program of 11 separate gardens to enhance the area for patients and visitors. - Lenora Roberson.

BOGUE BANKS LIBRARY The Bogue Banks Library Storytime program, held at the Marine Resources Center, will continue during the month of July, STORYTIME CONTINUES with several special events also scheduled.

Saturday, July 3, the Center will present "A Walk In the Forest" using time-lapse photography; July 10, Roy Grant, ranger at Cape Lookout National Seashore, will offer a program on Snakes with a film; on Monday, July 12 Joab, the frog and mascot of the Summer reading game, will be present in person, and a film, "Fantasy of Feet".