

PINE KNOLL ASSOCIATION TAKES POSITION

At the meeting of the Board of Directors January 9th, Jim Johnson, who had represented the Pine Knoll Association at the town public hearing on January 7th reported to the Board and the following position was then adopted:

- A. The serious flooding that has occurred in the east end of the town has to be corrected.
- B. Some flooding has occurred in other parts of the town and will occur more frequently as development increases; therefore, a town drainage plan needs to be developed.
- C. The canal water quality must be protected for the recreation, health, safety and the welfare of all the residents of the town.

- - - - - oOo - - - - -

*****
 * TO ALL ORGANIZATIONS USING TOWN HALL *
 * The town Hall is used both day and night for meetings of property owners *
 * associations and other organizations within the town. Very often the house- *
 * keeping required to put the meeting room back in order is overlooked or *
 * forgotten. Each organization is responsible for the clean up of the room *
 * after use. Please see that this is done before you leave the meeting room. *
 *****

10 YEARS AGO IN THE SHORELINE

New neighbors welcomed were: Anthony and Irene Klepacki, Audrey and Ken Hoffmeyer, Becky Hackler and Dot Cutler.

It was announced at the Commissioners' meeting that the population of Pine Knoll Shores increased 932% from 1970 - 1974.

- - - - - oOo - - - - -

LIBRARY LOG

The first film of the Friday afternoon film series was a comprehensive overview of Japan. Although but a few were in attendance, Shore Line received a rave review. It was the desire of this viewer to get the word out so that more people would enjoy the films to come. They will be held at 2:30 p.m. at the Marine Resources Center from now through April. Coming up:

- January 17 - SALT: THE HIDDEN THREAT. 1983 - 21 minutes. Color. Evidence suggests sodium is a factor in hypertension, known as high blood pressure. This film examines the problem of excess salt in our diets. Explores the most common sources of sodium in the foods we eat and suggests ways to reduce the intake of salt. Anne Dill of the Carteret County Health Department will introduce this film
- January 24 - I MARRIED A WITCH. 1942 - 77 minutes. Black and White Cast: Veronica Lake, Fredric March, Robert Benchley, Susan Hayward, Cecil Kellaway. Based on the novel, THE PASSIONATE WITCH by Thorne Smith. A witch burned in Salem centuries ago comes back to haunt the descendant of the Puritan who sent her to death. Special effects heighten this delightful comedy-fantasy.
- January 31 - INGRID. 1984 - 70 minutes. Color. Ingrid Bergman is movingly portrayed in this comprehensive biography covering the actress' career highlights and turbulent personal life. Uses film clips of Bergman's most memorable roles, rare footage of her early Swedish films, home movie clips of her childhood and interviews with friends and fellow performers. Narrated by John Gielgud.
- February 7 - EMILY DICKINSON: A CERTAIN SLANT OF LIGHT. 1977 - 29 minutes. Color. Filmed in the Dickinson family home in Amherst, Mass., this portrait of Emily Dickinson's life and works effectively transmits her uniqueness and the ambience of her thought. Julie Harris takes the viewer on a tour of Dickinson's