

McNaughton books ordered recently and expected soon include Bandits by Leonard, Bolt by Francis, Dinner Party by Fast, Fine Things by Steel, and a book about early settlers in Australia, Fatal Shore by Hughes. Also, in this group are Wambaugh's Echoes in the Darkness and Angelou's Now Sheba Sings the Song.

We invite all newcomers to come in, browse around, and register for a library card. Do it before the busy summer gets here!

FROM THE AQUARIUM

The annual Sea Turtle volunteer drive is underway at the North Carolina Aquarium at Pine Knoll Shores. Sea Turtle Volunteers patrol daily the beaches for evidence of turtle activity as well as responding to sea turtle strandings. The meeting will introduce the tasks and procedures to those interested in donating a few hours each week. Interested residents are asked to attend a meeting at the Aquarium, April 30, 1987 at 3:00 P.M.

The films in the auditorium every Saturday and Sunday at 2:00 P.M. and the Slide Presentations at 3:00 P.M. will continue through May. "Onboard" cruises are held on Fridays at 8:30 A.M. Pre-registration and a fee are required for this.

Watch for other events such as the day for beginning surfcasters April 30th and "How to Prepare Seafood" on April 24th.

North Carolina Aquarium Society Members night is also on the 24th.
