

TO: INTERESTED VOLUNTEERS
FROM: BOB PATTON, AQUARIUM VOLUNTEER COORDINATOR
SUBJECT: INFORMATION DESK MEETING

The Aquarium's long-awaited information desk is finally in place in the Aquarium entrance, and we are now recruiting volunteers who would like to work a "shift" at this important location. An orientation and training meeting will be held on Tuesday, December 3 at 10:00 a.m. in the Aquarium's classroom. Please join us for this important session, as we will review the schedules, policies, and specifics of this volunteer responsibility.

The information Desk will be a very popular stopping point for Aquarium visitors. All kinds of questions will be asked, ranging from "what does the octopus eat?" to "where is a good seafood restaurant?" Our training session will introduce you to the responsibilities of the job, give you an idea of the kinds of information needed, and guide you to finding the necessary answers. Although the duty may sometimes be very hectic and sometimes slow, it should also make for a very rewarding challenge.

If you are interested in helping the Aquarium as an "information volunteer" please join us for the orientation. If you would like to volunteer but are unable to attend on December 3, please give me a call and we will attempt to schedule an alternate time for training.

Thank you for your interest and support of the Aquarium. We greatly appreciate the help, and our visitors will too!
