

Chief Teddy Wimberly is arranging a special Christmas Parade. Help is needed. If you would like to participate, please call Teddy at Town Hall

Book Sale A Success

Library Has New Director

Our

annual booksale here at the library, August 8, was a success. We appreciate all the help that everyone involved in the sale gave us. Our Storytelling Festival at the Aquarium was well attended with around 280 at the final count.

Please remember the first meeting of the book discussion group, "Between the Book Ends" here in the auditorium of the library from 10:00 AM - 11:30 AM, Monday, September 14. Come join us.

Jo Cox's Calligraphy exhibit will be on display in our cabinets through the end of September. Our thanks to Jo for loaning it to us. If you haven't seen it, come by and enjoy.

Our regional director here at Bogue Banks, Mrs. Elinor Hawkins has retired as of September 1, 1992. Mr. Wayne Modlin, previously in library work in the western part of the state, will be our new director. Welcome to Mr. Modlin.

Kathleen Muller, our assistant librarian, returned to work August 17. We are glad to have her back.

Ernestine Conway

The October Meeting of the Pine Knoll Shores Women Club will be the Friday, October 23, 1992, at Town Hall. 9:30 AM Social, 10:00AM - Program, followed by the business meeting.

Ellen Peirce, Director of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program, known as RSVP, will speak on the service, and what it does for the community. Ellen, and her husband Jim, are also the editors of the Pine Knoll Shores monthly paper The Shoreline.

A note to put on your calendar. Friday, December 11th, will be the Pine Knoll Shores Womens Club Luncheon. More news on this at a later date.

Publicity Chairman
Betty Lee Foulk
726-6647

FROM THE MAYOR

Mayor Mary Kanyha on September 4th, gave a welcoming speech at the opening ceremony for the U.S.C.G. CUTTER BARGUE EAGLE. On behalf of the town of Pine Knoll Shores, Mayor Kanyha welcomed Captain Patrick Stilman and his crew, and presented him with a guide to the Crystal Coast, inscribed in calligraphy by Patricia Nelson.

Age and Understanding will overcome youth and skill

SURPLUS PROPERTY

A kitchen undercounter from the watch room at Town hall has been replaced. The used property has been declared as surplus and has been released for sale. If you are interested, please contact Commission Blanchard at Town Hall.

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

Commissioner Hasulak emphasized the lessons to be learned from problems experienced in Florida and Louisiana following Hurricane Andrew. Personal products such as prescription medicines and diapers should not be overlooked in preparing for evacuation.

STREET NAME SIGNS

Commissioner Blanchard reports that he has received many favorable comments on the new street name signs. Several street name signs have been ordered that were not included in the first order.

FINANCE

Commissioner Gallo reports that 7.6% of budgeted revenues have been received while 15% of budget expenditures have been distributed. Revenues from room tax and sales tax were up a little. Investments average a rate of 2.8% Tax bills should be out by September 15, and citizens are urged to pay early although taxes can be paid at par through January 5th.

No Spring, Nor Summer Beauty hath such grace
as I have seen in one Autumnal face
- John Donne