EDITOR'S CORNER

Summer is over, fall is around the corner, now if you all believe that I've some swampland in Arizona to sell you. It's good to be back. I cannot find the words to express my appreciation to the ladies at Town Hall who so thoughtfully typed the Shoreline last month for me. I thought they did a magnificent job. I plan to keep on being your Editor as long as you all want me to. Remember, feedback is important, let me know your thoughts.

Sincerely,

◆ TOPIC

Twentieth Anniversary

On Tuesday, following the Town Board Meeting, over some 200 interested citizens jammed town hall and the rotunda to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the town. Chair, Lois Jean O'Keefe welcomed all. A.C. Hall spoke of "In the Beginning", Mayor Kanhya of "Now and the Future." Former mayors present were H.K. Keller and Kenneth A. Hanan. Other special dignitaries from out of town were former State legislative representative Ronald Earl Mason and

Mrs. Mason, Nelson Taylor, first town attorney, Si Bezuyen, first town clerk and MRs. Bezuyen. Mrs. Wayne Cleveland, wife of former Mayor Cleveland was presented a replica of the town seal. Mayor Kanhya unveiled pictures of former town officials. For history buffs, Nancy Marshall and a special committee have assembled memorabilia of the town and island. It is on display in the waiting room at Town Hall. Also available in the town reference room is Haller's History of Pine Knoll Shores and several photo albums lovingly kept up to date by Judy Poit.

SONNET TO A TOWN - 1993

Long ago, when Pine Knoll Shores began, and lots stood empty on the sea and sound,

Some of us were thinking of a plan to make a paradise of what we'd found.

We met together, feeling strong and proud, and figured how to get right on the map.

The word went out to all, quite clear and loud;

And we incorporated in a snap.

We picked our trusty leaders; they were great!

A real town were we, just like our dreams - We're sure we are the best one in the State, And others look to us to lead, it seems.

And now, amidst the sounds of hearty cheers,

Let's look ahead to another

TWENTY YEARS!
