

Caroline in Raleigh. Neither is married.

Their cats, Duran and Princess, stay in Raleigh.

Chris loves to read, knit, garden, dance, sail and bird watch. Jerry enjoys reading, dancing, bird watching and sailing. They've bought a two-seater kayak, for use in the Sound. In Dover, DE., they were members of a ballroom dance club and loved it. They believe they've found the best place.

Betty Lee Foulk

Yanne and George Johnston and Clarissa Johnston, live at 101 Carob Court. They bought their home in December and moved in January 4, 1995. Yanne was born in Copenhagen, Denmark. George was born and raised in Cranford, NJ. Clarissa, George's mother, has lived with them for 25 years. They lived in Yorktown, NY. George was an agent for New York Life Insurance, retiring in 1984. At that time he joined his wife, Yanne, who was a knitting machine distributor for Brothers Knitting Machine Co. She also had a yarn shop and taught all types of needle work. She does a Danish needlework with tiny beads which is utterly magnificent and will take orders for anything knitted. She is an artist in her field.

Their son, Glen, a US Marine, and daughter-in-law, Lola, live in Swansboro. George's two daughters, Debbie and Maureen, are married and live in New York State. Maureen has two little girls.

Clarissa is a young 98 years old. She looks much younger than her years. She has five great grandchildren.

They have been coming to PKS on vacation for twelve years. Seven years' ago they bought a unit at Pine Knoll Townes and came down about four times a year. When they finally retired, they decided to buy this home and stay. This was the place.

Yanne enjoys knitting, beading, sewing, painting, dancing and loves tennis.

George loves to cook, garden, dance and play tennis. They have two dogs, Heide, a German shepherd, and Sammy, part husky and part German shepherd.

Clarissa loves to read and watch TV.

MEET YOUR NEW NEIGHBORS: We would like to write a "blurb" about each of our new neighbors. If there is someone new in your neighborhood, please give us a call. If you are new to PKS, please telephone us so we can informally meet with you.
Thanks
