

PINE KNOLL SHORES WOMEN'S CLUB

With days on the beach waning and the holiday season just around the corner, many of us are taking a critical look at the ambience inside the house and wishing for some tips on how to make the interior more exciting or inviting.

Lynn Starling of Star Designs came to the rescue! Featured speaker at the Pine Knoll Shores Women's Club meeting Friday, November 17, at Town Hall, Ms. Starling will discuss how "Little Things Mean a Lot" in home decor. She will demonstrate ways we can freshen up our homes with accessories.

The meeting will open at 9:30 AM, with the serving of coffee. At the close of the meeting. The "Lunch Bunch" will go to the Town House Restaurant in Morehead City to enjoy a sampling of Lebanese dishes especially prepared by the chef for the occasion. Diners may also order from the regular menu if they prefer.

All members and guests attending the meeting are welcome to join the lunch group; however lunch reservations are required. Please call Nancy Forster, 247-0072, if you wish to have lunch.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The AARP Tax-Aide program is seeking additional volunteers to assist the elderly and low-to-moderate income taxpayers in the preparation of their Federal and State income tax returns. IRS certified instructors will teach the course, and material will be provided. If interested, please call Sal Franzo(247-2317) for further information.

PINE KNOLL SHORES GARDEN CLUB

PKS Garden Club met October 11 at Town Hall. Hospitality Chairman, Connie Parker, was assisted by Bobbie Ready, Shirley Hargroves and Penny McAnaw.

Claire Winslow introduced speaker, Todd Miller, Executive Director of the NC Coastal Federation. The Federation is non-profit. It is funded by individual donations and grants. It investigates concerns with water quality and the way it is affected by loss of wetlands due to conversion of natural forest areas, and seashore erosion. North Carolina has lost much natural wetlands, primarily due to pollutants.

Garden Club will sell luminaria kits again this year. Candles are sold which can be set out along streets and around boat basins Christmas Eve. The kits are $5.00 for 10 candles and 10 bags. Garden Club members will take orders, or call Julia Woolard (247-6030) or Connie Parker (247-6033).

Judy Poit, Project Chairman, announced the project this year will be added planting at the Mimosa Blvd corner.

Gardening Tip, from Betty Stanton - when filling flower pots, put a coffee filter or plastic popcorn in the bottom under the dirt.

BOGUE BANKS LIBRARY

It is a little quieter at the library now that autumn is here and our summer visitors have gone. However, the staff is very busy with our new computers, inventory and many other changes that are taking place. Please remember to ask to be registered for a new regional library card if you do not already have one.

We have a new audio cassette stand or holder to the right of the shelves where the cassettes were. We will be getting a second one of these stands in the future.

New books recently received are as follows: Coming Home by Pilcher, After Dark by Margolin, A Good Walk Spoiled by Feinstein, The Liar's Club by Karr, To Renew America by Gingrich, The Fallon Blood by Jordan, Eves of a Child by Patterson, Brothers No More by Buckley, Come to Grief by Francis, and My American Journey by Powell.

The library will be closed Friday, November 10 in observance of Veteran's Day.
