Welcome New Residents

Sheryl and Bill Woodbury recently moved into their home at 186 Loblolly Drive. They come from the Baltimore area.

Bill, a geologist, worked for the Corps of Engineers for 19 years and most recently retired from the US Bureau of Mines. Sheryl was a ballet dancer. At one time she studied with George Ballanchine and has danced at Radio City Music Hall.

Between them they have five children. Bill has three girls, two in Wilmington, NC and one in Baltimore. Sheryl has a boy in Burlington, NC and a girl in Los Angeles. They have three grandchildren; two boys ages 6 and 9 and one girl 18 months.

Some years ago, they had a time-share. They traded for a week at the Whaler Inn and loved the area. They kept coming back looking for a place to retire. They bought a lot on
