November Board of Commissioners Meeting

Public Hearing

The Pine Knoll Shores Board of Commissioners held its second Public Hearing on Tuesday, November 24th to get public input on establishment of Service Districts for the purpose of Financing Beach Erosion Control, Flood and Hurricane Protection. Commissioner Gallo presented a synopsis of the project. The Board took comments and answered questions. A show of hands indicated that citizens agreed the Board should continue the process of establishing the service districts.

Regular Scheduled Meeting

Following the Public Hearing in their regular scheduled meeting the Board voted to establish, by resolutions, Tax District 1 and Tax District 2 .

The Board voted to pass a resolution making certain findings and determinations, authorizing the filing of an application with the Local Government Commission and appoint Bond Counsel in connection with the proposed issuance of Beach Improvement bonds by the Town.

Resolution passed to release State Economic Development Funding to Region P.

The Board ratified the Resolution in support of Higher Education Bonds for North Carolina's Community Colleges and Universities.

The Town was awarded the Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting for the 11th consecutive year.

Town Tax Collector, Connie Shelton and Town Clerk, Ronda Lambert were recognized for fulfilling requirements through the Institute of Government to receive certification in their current job positions.
