Meet Your New Neighbors

Barbara and Hugh Gaunt moved into their new home, 117 Oakleaf Drive, several months ago. They have retired to Pine Knoll Shores from Red Bank, New Jersey. The Gaunts bought their property about 15 years ago and have been planning this move for a long time. They have come to the beach to visit almost every year during each season to see if they would like it. They love it. Hugh had come to North Carolina after a business trip and fell in love with the area. They purchased a house in Morehead City for rental purposes and thought they might live in that house while building their new one. However, they sold that house and spent some time in hotels instead.

Barbara was born in San Francisco and Hugh in Nebraska. He moved to California as a child and they both grew up in California, were high school sweethearts and married during their sophomore year in college. They will be celebrating their 45th wedding anniversary this year.

They moved to New Jersey, where Barbara was a homemaker and Hugh has worked the past 37 years in New York City. They also had an apartment in New York. Hugh's offices were at 37th and Madison Avenue where he worked in the fashion industry, manufacturing and marketing children's outerwear and did a great deal of traveling.

The Gaunts have three children a son Greg and his wife Pat who live in New Jersey with their four year old daughter Haley. Barbara and Hugh's daughter Tammy and her husband Richard, a dentist, live in Florida with Brandon, their 9 year old son. The youngest daughter Terri and her husband Rob will be moving closer, Fayetteville, with their dogs, cats and a horse. Terri rides and shows her Arabian.

The Gaunts have joined B.B.C.C. and have already begun to collect the golf balls in their yard which is to the right of the 7th fairway. They are both presently playing golf and anticipate getting back into tennis. They enjoy buying and refinishing antiques. Hugh has a super workshop. Barbara has started taking a stained glass class. They are very busy and really happy to be here.
