

NC Aquarium Honors Employees

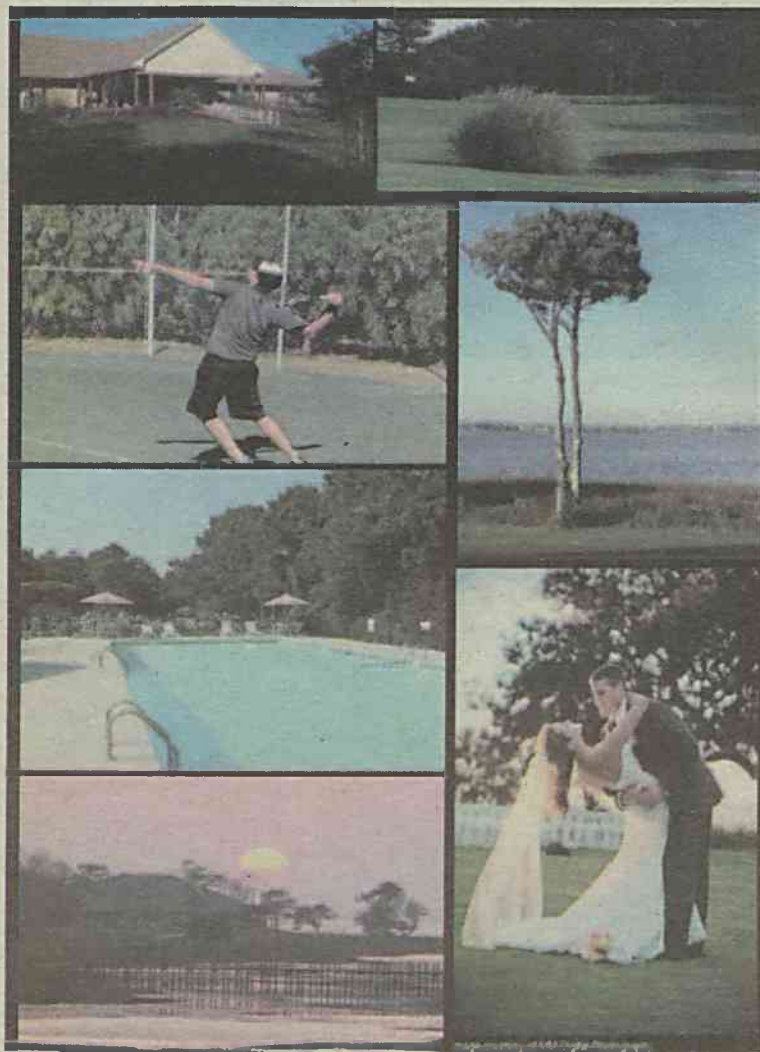

The North Carolina Aquarium Society recently honored two employees in Pine Knoll Shores for outstanding performance and commitment. Clint Taylor of the Husbandry Department was recognized with the 2011 Award of Excellence. Pam Nichols of Visitor Services was chosen for the 2011 Customer Service Award. They were selected from nominations by aquarium employees.

Taylor, an aquarist, was cited for his expertise in the behind-the-scenes systems essential to the well-being of aquarium animals. "Clint is our go-to guy for taking on special projects in the animal care area, especially in dealing with the exhibit filtration and life-support equipment," said Aquarium Director Allen Monroe.

Nichols is part of admissions staff, handling ticket transactions, program registrations and membership sales and renewals. She and her co-workers frequently interact with thousands of visitors and aquarium members a day. "Not only does Pam offer outstanding customer service to our visitors, but she treats each co-worker with warmth, respect and a friendly attitude," said Visitor Services Coordinator Cindy Meyers.

Pam Nichols of Visitor Services received the 2011 Customer Service Award and Aquarist Clint Taylor was honored with the 2011 Award of Excellence and at the North Carolina Aquarium at Pine Knoll Shores.
