

Photo by Dan Law

with a "nostalgia
Club and a members.

Photo by Evelyn O'Neill

Former Women's Club president Bonnie Ferneau (left) and Former Women's Club president and former mayor Mary Kanyha

Photo by Evelyn O'Neill

Marjorie Turney, Women's Club president in 1987-88

Photo by Evelyn O'Neill

Joan Lamson (left) and Betty Carr

Photo by Evelyn O'Neill

Photo by Jerry Price

This East End Stormwater Project work on the grounds of the Country Club of the Crystal Coast should be finished by the time this issue of The Shoreline arrives—and will bring welcome relief to the flooding on the east side of town during heavy rain.

ed his 10th birthday in mid-
e whack at the Crystal Coast.

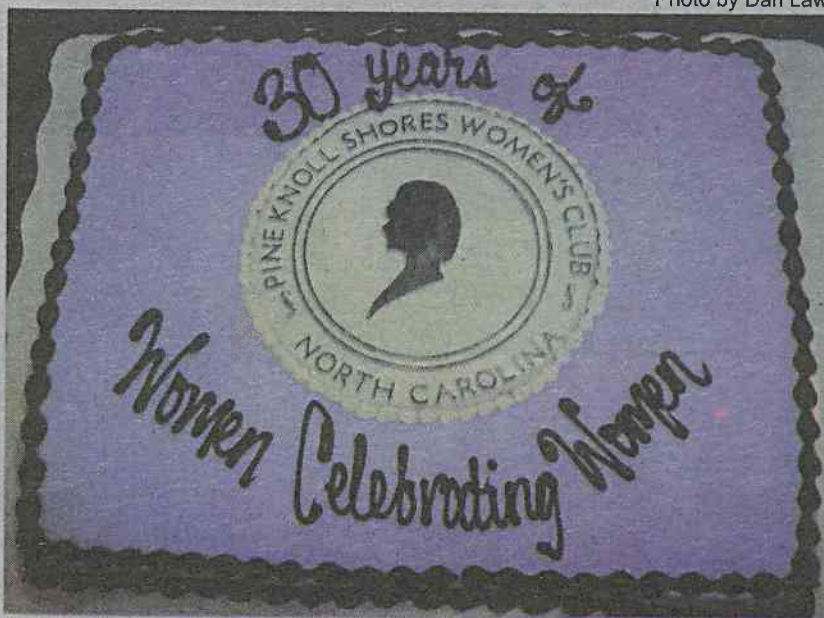

Photo by Janie Price

Past summer memories, next summer dreams—Granddaughter Cat Higgins was visiting Betty and Dick Watson of Pine Knoll Shores (and Midlothian, Virginia). She learned how to throw a cast net and was excited when she landed this nice Sheepshead. Betty and Dick taught her how to clean the fish and they all enjoyed it for dinner.

Mayor Jones (left) and Commissioner Fulcher

Photo by Dan Law

And there was cake to celebrate the day!

40 and South Saunders
ity for the light to change