

Great food donated by a who's who of local restaurants. The crowd meandered through and exciting evening; just ask Julie and Cameron Anderson.

also
otta
vent for

A great gathering to salute our wounded warriors.

s of Morehead back. He has
anton-Law

From left: John Dowler, Cam Anderson and Nick Anderson kept the kitchen open until the hot dogs ran out.

by Mike Hargett
efe (not shown)
he coveted Pine
d. It was piloted
anders, with the
ors from Buffa's Burke, Virginia.

Pine Knoll Shores residents Bonnie and Mike Ferneau recently volunteered at the Men's and Women's U.S. Opens in Pinehurst. They are pictured here at the U.S. Golf Association's member headquarters.

Pine Knoll Shores residents Barbara and JB Bagby celebrated Memorial Day on the National Mall in Washington, D.C.—Photo by Jane English Bagby

The Bagbys' daughter, Jane English Bagby, is an employee at the Bethesda, Maryland, headquarters of Lockheed Martin, sponsor of the National Memorial Day Concert in Washington, D.C. Selected employees and guests were invited to meet performing celebrities and attend the dress rehearsal. Pictured here, left to right, are JB Bagby, Barbara Bagby, Jane Bagby, Gary Sinise and Joe Mantegna.—Photo courtesy of Lockheed Martin