Pine Knoll Shores Christmas Parade

In the middle of unseasonably warm weather over the holidays, December 19 was a crisp winter-like day in the 40s. Participants and spectators bundled up to come out and enjoy the parade as only Pine Knoll Shores can do it. Special thanks to Tom Graczewski for being an excellent Santa and to Susan Toms for organizing a fun event enjoyed by young and old alike.—Photos by Dan Law and Jimmy Blanton
