

Pine Knoll Shores Well Represented At Trivia Bee

Three teams from Pine Knoll Shores were among the 27 teams that competed in the 2016 Trivia Bee at the Crystal Coast Civic Center in January. Proceeds from the bee benefitted the Boys and Girls Clubs of Coastal Carolina.

Tree City Beelievers, representing the Town of Pine Knoll Shores, took third place. From left, Ellie and Scott Sherrill and Ted Goetzinger—Photo by Marian Goetzinger

The Selling Bees, representing Pine Knoll Shores Realty. From left, Pine Knoll Shores residents Terry Smith, David Abernethy and Robin Smith—Photo by Marian Goetzinger

Plan Bee, representing the Crystal Coast. From left, Cathi Tilyard and Mariana Goldstein—Photo by Marian Goetzinger

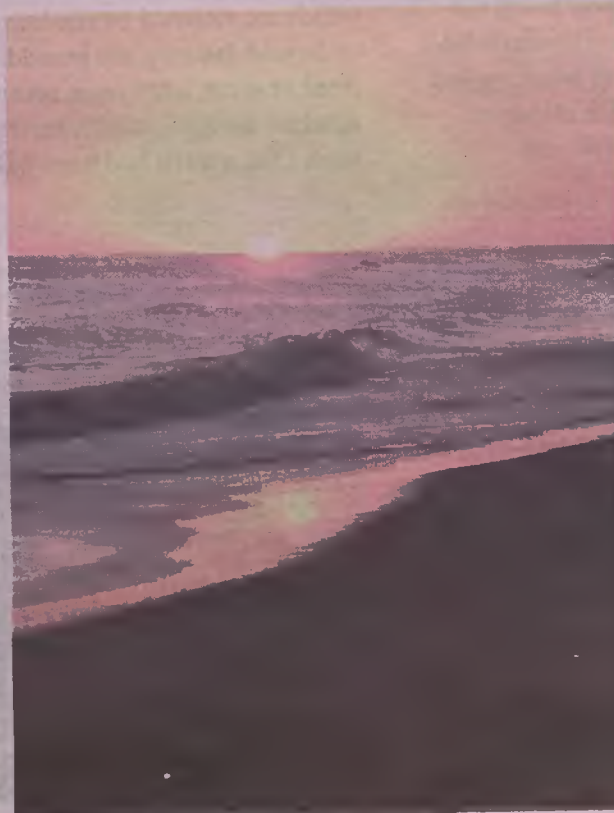

On Valentine's Day, Pine Knoll Shores neighbors gathered at the home of Kathy and John Tilyard. From left: Fred Hannula, Jim Wagner, Bruce Flynt, John Tilyard, John Adler, Dave Finefrock and Harold Green. All enjoyed an evening of good food and friendship. —Photo by Kathy Falandys Tilyard

Facebook Photo
Local friends are part of a number of events that has produced a number of...

Storm on Highway 24 near Jacksonville—Photo by Linda Anderson

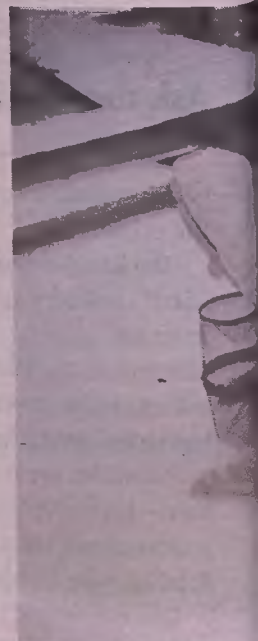

Sunset in Pine Knoll Shores—Photo by Tracie Nasta, courtesy of Kathy Falandys Tilyard

Pine Knoll Shores Memorial Park sunrise—Photo by Amy Hahn

Storm over Bogue Sound

Snow in Emerald Isle