

Blanket Mill

Continued from page 2

nied them back to Gastonia where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Lay.

Annie Belle Craig (one of our wool card room "cuties") remains ill. An infection on her leg has kept her from work for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Marlowe had as week-end visitor Miss Madeline Handy of Schoolfield.

Misses Myrtle, Dolice and Madie Allen; Oscar and Asa Allen, Mrs. Janey McVay and little Gary Lee McVay, all of Cascade, enjoyed a nice trip carrying their brother, Seaman First Class Thurman Allen, back to Camp Bradford, Norfolk, over the week-end.

Speaking of birthday dinners, Mrs. Rosa Young was hostess at a lovely dinner in honor of her son, J. D., and granddaughter, Joyce Ann Young. Partaking of the delicious meal were Mrs. J. D. Young, her mother, Mrs. Knight, of Leaksville, Billie and Glenn Turner, Otis Young and children, Gale and Hubert.

Another sumptuous dinner was that enjoyed by Willie Hairfield and family. Willie went to visit relatives in Axton, Va., Saturday, and was much surprised to find a birthday dinner awaiting him there. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Haley, Pvt. Mack Singtorey and wife, of Camp Lee, Mrs. Mary Haley, Washington, D. C., Aubrey Haley and Elmo Cassidy.

V . . . —

Bleachery

By Evelyn Walker

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Underwood had as guest last week his sister, Miss Otha Underwood, of Roanoke, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McBride recently visited his brothers, Frank and Junior, at Williamsburg and Norfolk, Va., respectively.

Pvt. and Mrs. Eddie Ferguson have returned to Michigan after spending several days here with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Matthews and other relatives. Pvt. Ferguson is stationed at Fort Custer, and Mrs. Ferguson, the former Avis Hodges, is employed at Battle Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Wimbish had as guests over the week-end Mrs. C. W. Parrish of Burlington and Mrs. Hallie Dabbs of Schoolfield.

Mr. and Mrs. George Snow and daughter, Maline, and Miss Hilda Austin visited Mrs. Snow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hodges, of Rocky Mount, Va., over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck McCollum visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carroll, over the week-end. Mr. Carroll, who has been very ill, is improving.

Mrs. Bessie Shockley has returned to work, having been absent due to the serious illness of her daughter, Billy, who is much improved.

We are also glad to have with us again Ruby Winn, who has been absent on account of illness, and Ruby Lovell who has been away several months with her husband who is employed in Baltimore, Md.

Lt. and Mrs. L. P. Gailey of Burlington announce the birth of a daughter, Toni Angelita on November 10th. Mrs. Gailey, the former Vivian Burnette, of Draper, is a niece of Mrs. Emmett Burnette, Bleachery.

V . . . —

Rayon Mill

By Ray Warner

Mrs. Jeff Turner, Edmonia Turner and her mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Moscoe Hundley visited the former's husband, Pvt. Jeff Turner, at Fort Bragg on Sunday.

Alva Highfill, Evelyn Gilley, Lucille Stephens and Edna Hopper, all of the entering department, have been out of work due to illness. "I suggest trying the new Peruna."

Mrs. Harry Hudgens has received word that her brother, George Miles, Jr., in England, has been promoted to sergeant.

Mrs. Maude Ballard recently spent several days with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Vause, Jr., of Newport News, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Land and family and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Land spent last Sunday at Venton, Va., with Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Ferguson.

Iris Ferguson and Lucille Stephens spent the week-end with Mrs. Mozelle Stephens Lentz at Winston-Salem. Mrs. Lentz accompanied them home to spend a few days with relatives in Spray.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Saunders visited Mrs. Saunders' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barton, near Roanoke Sunday.

Cpl. Luther G. Saunders of Camp Maxie, Texas, was home on furlough last week.

Welcome to Jesse Heffinger to the cloth room as cloth inspector.

J. R. Grogan was confined to his home the past week due to illness.

We welcome Mrs. Mildred Gardner to the office staff replacing Mrs. Jack Simpson who recently resigned.

Pvt. and Mrs. James E. Ferguson of Fort Custer, Mich., have been home the past week visiting relatives and friends.

The employees of the Rayon Mill express their deepest sympathy to the Purdy family in the death of their father, Will Purdy, and also to the family of Virgil Watson, who was called by death last week.

V . . . —

Karastan Mill

By Dorothy Ferguson

The weave room was very glad to see Clarence Bingham return to work after being out so ill.

"Daisy Mae" Hawkins has been chasing "Little Abner" Priddy since November 6, but hasn't had any luck yet.

Staff Sgt. Frank King, Jr. spent a 10-day furlough at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank King. He has returned to Hamilton Field, Calif.

Wonder if Paul's hat is helping his sinus trouble.

We had two pistol packing mamas in the weave room last week who had a little misunderstanding, but I think they have decided to lay their pistols down.

We are glad to have Lillie Hill Robertson with us in the finishing department. She is formerly of the shipping department.

Robert's car is in A-1 condition now—new paint job, new everything (even new tires to hear him tell it). Wonder why he wants to sell it?

We're sorry to hear that Mrs. Sallie McCullough, better known as Aunt Sallie, is ill at her home on Overlook avenue. She was made very happy in spite of her sickness by a recent visit from her daughter, Mrs. Beadie Johnston, of Wilmington, Del.

Wonder why Billy spends so much time talking to Snead when he comes to the finishing department. Maybe it's because she has a cute daughter.

Howard McGinnis was taken to the Fayetteville hospital Saturday morning. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter, who returned home Saturday night. Hope he will soon be able to return also.

Say folks, watch out! This thing called "giggles" is catching, from the looks of things. Notice Paul and Happy when they get together, and Willie's in on it too—What's the joke?

What's this I hear about Emma having her fortune told and she's expecting an important letter that may be the turning point of her life. No kidding, Emma, do you really believe that stuff?

Janie's still wishing she was sixteen. Too bad, Janie, Frank already has a girl anyway, and is she cute—so you wouldn't have a chance.

Since the cutting department has been moved down stairs to the carving room, we certainly do miss Clay, Cooper and Ed. Come to see us soon, boys.

The main topic of conversation with the men these days is "Rabbit Hunting." You should hear the Wilmoth brothers talk of their experiences Saturday. Roy, are you still mad at Robert for catching more rabbits than you did.

Mrs. Mable Kiser and daughter, Edna, spent last Friday night with sick relatives in Reidsville.

Even Jim stopped working long enough to go hunting too—he says he caught three rabbits and one o'possum. You've got them all beat, Jim. Keep up the good work.

Does anyone know who the good looking SPAR was that visiting our department Monday?