

MARRIED 50 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home in Draper on Monday, November 22, 1943. All five of their children were at home to help make the occasion a most happy one. Mr. Hall has, for many years, been employed in the Blanket Mill and has an excellent record as a worker and a citizen. A unique feature of their fifty years together is that all of their children and grandchildren are still living. Their host of friends wish them many more happy years together.

MENTION AROUND MILLS

(Continued From Page Two)

ain't talking, so we won't mention him this time.

Ye editor growled last issue and said the photog was wrong, it was the work he is doing at home building a rock garden that made him sore. Roger Wilkes refuses to comment on this, so we'll mark it for later confirmation.

Joe Farrell is going to spend another day at Fort Bragg again. He must like army cooking.

Didn't hear anything else, so I guess I'll go in the dark room and see if I can't wrangle a plate of milk.

Purr! Purr!

V . . . —

"Have you ever appeared as a witness before?"

"Yes, your honor."

"In what suit?"

"My blue serge."

Bedsread M&I

By Morrel Conner

Pfc. Berean Talbert is at home on a 15-day furlough.

Sarah Hicks is now at home after undergoing an operation at the Leaksville hospital, and is showing much improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Reynolds, of Park avenue, announce the marriage of their daughter, Hazel, to John Henry Stevens, Jr. They were married at Lexington, S. C., Thanksgiving.

Mrs. L. M. Moore has moved to Draper to be with her husband, who is in the cafe business there.

Mrs. Eunice Oakley has been out several days due to illness.

Mrs. T. S. Meeks and son, Tommie, spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Durham with Mr. Meeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Webb visited Mrs. Lewis Joyce, the former's sister, who is ill at her home near Madison.

Mrs. Sallie Stultz and Mrs. Barney Carroll spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Stultz' mother in Roanoke, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hutcherson and family are very happy to have their son and brother back with them after being in foreign service for three years.

Mrs. J. L. Phillips and son, Bobby, spent last week-end in Hillsville, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Adams and daughter, Virginia, spent last week-end with Mrs. Adams' sister in Graham, N. C.

V . . . —

Central Warehouse

By Maybud Stanley

R. N. Brown spent the past week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown at Randleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Robertson were in Greensboro Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Nelson entertained at 6 o'clock dinner Friday the following: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ship-ton and family and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pratt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. West and Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Dehart motored over to Greensboro Saturday afternoon and did some Christmas shopping. Hope they remembered us all with a gift.

A/S Freeman Harter has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Boone after completing his boot training at Bainbridge, Md. Freeman loves the navy and is chuck full of fighting spirit that will bear fruit. We all wish for him the best of luck.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Stanley were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hodges, Hamilton street, Leaksville.

Doug. Gentry of the U. S. Navy spent the past week-end with his parents on Railroad street.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Vipperman and family of Roanoke, Va., were visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Vipperman and Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Smart Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Stanley were dinner guests Thanksgiving of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Brown, Glovenia street.

Well, ole Paul Hopkins came in hopping this morning. Since he moved over on Bridge street and is housekeeping, he holds his head so high he can hardly see the horizon over the end of his nose. Saturday night he went out in the back yard and fell in a hole down on top the New System Laundry. The fall wasn't so bad, but that sudden stop jarred him up right much. I guess maybe his parachute failed to open. Better bring your head down a little Paul.

V . . . —

Marching to Victory—Your Son—His Gun—Your Prayers—Your Bonds! He needs them all! Buy $100 more!