

Facts and Fancies from Fieldale

"JACKIE" McCOLLUM

We didn't treat Jackie exactly right, fellows. She didn't want her picture taken. In fact, she flatly refused to pose for us so we had to sneak up on her and the photographer snapped the picture just as she glanced around. But we were sure you fellows from Fieldale would like to see a swell looker like Jackie at work on machines that are familiar to you. And we're sure Jackie won't begrudge you the look at a pretty, familiar face. She's in the Hosiery Mill.

AUDREY HARLOWE

Now wait a second, fellows, wait a second. Let's know at the very start that Audrey is married. Our acquaintance with Audrey was brief, but long enough to tag her as a "regular feller." Audrey is a fine soft ball player and was captain of the team that won the trophy in the Ladies' league last summer. She's another girl who is known to most of you Fieldale boys and we're sure you'll agree with us that we know how to pick 'em. She's in the Towel Mill.

Hedgecock-Brown

The wedding of Miss Marie Hedgecock to Carroll T. Brown, of Martinsville, took place Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the Methodist church here. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Landon Maddex, assisted by the Rev. H. K. Swann. Miss Elizabeth Davis, organist, and Bill Brabson, violinist, of Martinsville, rendered the music. Mrs. Eugene Copeland sang "Because". The bride was given in marriage by her brother, William Hedgecock. Mr. Brabson played "To a Wild Rose" during the ceremony. Miss Rowena Shaw was maid of honor, her only attendant. Tommy Myers, of Martinsville, was best man. The ushers were Taylor Sandford, of Ashland, Va. and Bob Joyce, of Martinsville. After a short honeymoon the couple will make their home in Martinsville.
