Dorothy: Jimmie, your office is in State Street, isn't it, dear?

Jimmie: Yes. Why?

Dorothy: I told daddy he was wrong. He said he had looked you up in Bradstreet.

"How kind of you," said the girl, "to bring me these lovely flowers. They are so beautiful and fresh. I believe there is some dew on them yet."

"Yes," stammered the young man in great embarrassment, "but I'm going to try to pay it off tomorrow."

V . . . —

Assistant: Your doctor is out here with a flat tire.

Garage man: Diagnose the case as flatulency of the perimeter and charge him accordingly. That's the way he does.
