

William Lester Baliles, 18-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Baliles. Daddy is in the Navy. Mother is employed at Central Warehouse. Are you going to be a wrestler like Daddy, young fellow?

These pretty little girls are daughters of Mrs. Bette Holland, formerly employed in Central Warehouse and whom many recall as a part-time correspondent to our paper. They are Phyllis Laurie and Pattie Lou Holland. Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Simpson, work at Finishing Mill.

Shirley Jean McCore, above, is the fine young daughter of Corp. and Mrs. Clifford Moore, of Draper. Since her Daddy (left) has been overseas for quite a while he will probably be surprised at the way she grows. A n d man to man, Corporal, she's some little gal!

Bedspread Mill
 By Mary Evelyn Tiller and Christine Price

Mr. and Mrs. William Joyce had as dinner guests Friday, May 12, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Joyce and son. After dinner Edward was presented a gift by the fixers of the Bedspread Mill and other friends. Edward is now in the armed forces but he wishes to thank all his fellow workers, especially the foremen, second hands and fixers for their help and cooperation in helping to make his nine years of employment there the success that it was. For the past three years he was supply room clerk.

Out Where Men Are Men

A Westerner entered a saloon with his wife and six-year-old son. He ordered two straight whiskeys. "Hey, Pa," said the kid, "ain't Ma drinking?"

 Save MORE money, LIVES, and the NATION! Prevent INFLATION. An EXTRA $100 Bond will do it!

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Chatman, well known citizens of Draper, have two sons in the armed forces.

says Sailor Alfred is very proud of Jimmy—and why not?

 Sergeant: How do you like the Army?
 New Private: I may like it after awhile; but just now I think there's too much drilling and fussing around between meals.

Pvt. and Mrs. Dorsey Meeks. Pvt. Meeks is now located at Ft. Jackson, S. C., and was a recent week-end visitor with his family in Spray. He was formerly employed at the Woolen Mill and says that Army life, while tough, is fine.
