

MENTION AROUND THE MILLS

Karastan Mill

G. T. Sykes is enjoying a two weeks' vacation with his family at Chapel Hill.

Miss Kitty Mae Martin and friends motored to Ridgecrest for a few days this week.

Miss Mary Jane Price has returned from her vacation after spending a few days with her sister in Durham.

Mrs. Arch Manuel is back at work after being out several weeks.

Miss Etta Richardson is back at work after being out sick.

Miss Reba Price and Mrs. Minnie Belton spent their vacation at Myrtle Beach.

Mrs. R. B. Pruitt will spend the week-end with her husband at Newport News.

Miss Chubby Austin and Ozelma Webb spent last week at Atlantic Beach.

Verney Tucker of Norfolk was a visitor in town this week.

Everett Roberts is taking his vacation this week.

Misses Irma Jones and Louise McAllister spent Saturday in Danville.

Mrs. Maud Jones and Miss Mary Adkins spent two weeks with friends at Benton, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Coleman had as supper guests, Thursday night, Tea Frye and his mother, Mrs. W. B. Frye. Mr. Frye left for the army, Friday.

Al Flannagan has returned from a six-day vacation at Myrtle Beach.

Mrs. Lawrence Lemons and Miss Louise McAllister spent the weekend with Mrs. Roy Graveley of Greensboro.

Mrs. Audrey Brame and Miss Elizabeth Jones visited in Greensboro, Tuesday.

Miss Carmen Nelson spent Monday in Martinsville, at hospital with her mother, Mrs. H. C. Nelson, who recently underwent an operation.

Mrs. Lawrence Lemons of Newport News, a former carver, is spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Burgess, Reidsville road.

Minnie Belton has returned to work after spending a few days at Myrtle Beach.

Robert Turner and family were visitors in Schoolfield.

Otis Gilley and family have moved from the Patterson place to Pine street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hall had as recent visitor, Mrs. H. A. Miles, Mrs. Hall's sister.

The many friends of Roy Grogan, who has been a patient at Duke hospital, wish him a speedy recovery.

Dillard Marshall and family spent the weekend in Danbury.

Howard McGennis is out sick.

Miss Dorothy Manley had as week-end guest, Miss Helen Wiley, of Danville.

Mrs. Kemp Newman is on her vacation this week.

Miss Alice Kirby, Designing Department, has just returned to work after a week's vacation. She reports a very nice time.

Mrs. Sedell is visiting her husband, E. N. Sedell, this week at the Hopper Hotel. She has been making her home in Philadelphia the past few months.

Miss Esther Shirt, daughter of D. F. Shirt, is leaving us the last of this month. Everyone will miss her in the designing room. She will be in Philadelphia, her former home.

Cliff Barham has returned from his vacation. He reports a nice time.

Woolen Mill

Mrs. Pete Dougard, of Corpus Christi, Texas, was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Red Vernon, Sunday, August 16th. Mrs. Dougard is a sister of Mrs. Vernon.

Those who enjoyed the birthday dinner of Misses Thelma and Lillie Gray Meadows, Sunday, August 19th, were Mr. and Mrs. John Humphrey, Mr. Marshall Pender, Rev. Robert Pooly, Rev. Daniel Boone, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Williams, Mr. Robert Moore, and the Meadows family.

Rev. Robert Pooly is holding a week's revival at the Riverview Presbyterian church, beginning August 16th and ending August 23rd. Much interest was manifested in the meetings.

Rev. Connie Black returned August 20th, after a two weeks' revival at Woolwine, Va.

Miss Louise McGuire, of Martinsville, Va., spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McGuire, Leaksville, R. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rayfield announce the birth of a son, Larry, on August 18th. Mother and baby are doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hefflinger announce the birth of a son, Gary Thomas, on August 18th.

PROMOTIONS

Woolen Mill:

Minos Huff—from jumper harness to weaver.

Joseph Searcy—from breaker feeder to utility man.

Sherman Almond—from fuller and washer helper to fuller.

Leonard Cochran—from fuller and washer helper to fuller.

Otis Hundley—from tie-in helper to smash and warp hand.

Sheeting Mill:

Fletcher Strader—from sweeper to quill collector.

Henry Weadon—from sweeper to quill machine operator.

A. G. Parker—from loom fixer to head loom fixer.

Claude Underwood—from break down man to loom fixer.

Bedsread Mill:

Ernest Lamar—from dye machine helper to dyer.

Mrs. Daisy Robertson and son, Andrew, are spending the week with Mrs. Robertson's son, Johnnie, in Boston, Mass.

Miss Frances Carter and sister, Sybil, are spending the weekend at Ocean View, Norfolk, Va.

Misses Leona Pierce and Earline Rorer are visiting Miss Pierce's brother in Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Obe Clark and daughter, Edna, spent the weekend in Martinsville with Mrs. Clive Hubbard, Mrs. Clark's daughter.

Mrs. C. T. Shields had as house guest the past week Mrs. Nellie Millner, of Philadelphia, Pa. A party composed of the guest: Mrs. C. W. Brown, Mrs. Jenny Simes and son Julius, Mrs. Martha Barksdale, Mrs. Sallie Beck, Mr. Long, and the hostess, Mrs. Shields, spent Sunday at Fairy Stone Park, also visited many friends in and near Patrick county. Mrs. Millner returned to her home in Philadelphia on Monday.

BRIGHT SPOTS: Flyswatter French is back at work after an attack of summer flu. . . Little Andy Jackson Robertson has gone to Boston, Mass., to play in a ping pong tournament. . . Little Crane Thacker is getting along okay on his new job. . . Coon Murphy had some of his friends dug up some buried treasure—it wasn't gold. . . Bill Robertson and Ralph (Billy) Barham of Blue Creek went bicycling Sunday, with Billy riding the rod. . . Andy Rutledge and Bill Robertson announce their new partnership with Jesse Newman in the hog-killing business. There motto is to set their hair. . . Coon Murphy is back after falling from a syamore tree while pursuing a kitten opossum. . . Crane Thacker is better after being dragged several hundred yards by a motorcycle.

Sheeting Mill

Sam Searcy is resigning his position this weekend to accept a post in Norfolk, Va.

J. T. Johnson visited relatives in Fayetteville during the weekend.

Haywood Robertson is resigning his position this week to accept a place in the defense program.

Pauline Reynolds has returned home after undergoing an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Mary Hawks has returned to work after a week's visit with relatives in the country.

Charlie Reece visited relatives and friends in Fries, Va., last weekend.

W. H. Kirks has returned home after undergoing an operation for Appendicitis at Leaksville hospital.

Not everybody with a dollar to spare can shoot a gun straight—but everybody can shoot straight to the bank and buy War Bonds. Buy your 10% every pay day.