

Bedsread Mill

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Tolbert a son,, William Kenneth, on September 3rd. Mother and son are getting along fine.

Pvt. Berean Tolbert spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Stella Tolbert.

Elizabeth Lewis is visiting relatives in Newport News this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Moore and daughter-in-law, Louise, spent the weekend in Burlington.

R. H. Pulliam has just informed us of receiving a letter and picture from his son, Randolph (Blue) Pulliam "somewhere in the war zone". He seems to be faring fine, as he has gained several pounds. This is the first word from him in about three months.

W. D. Tulloch was given a surprise birthday dinner, Sunday, by his children and grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meeks, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hopper, and Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Mabes were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Adams, of Paterson Street.

Mrs. Edna Taylor entertained Misses Gladys and Jean Candiff and Mrs. Hollis Candiff at a birthday dinner, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. H. A. Webb was dinner guest of Mrs. Cicero Davis, Sunday.

Mrs. George Martin spent Saturday in Burlington.

Mrs. Walter Fulton is absent from work due to an infected hand. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Karastan Mill

Private Roman Hall has returned to Camp Gordon, Ga., after a seven-day furlough which he spent with his mother and brother.

Ben Lee has been transferred from the rug shop to the warehouse.

James Craig has accepted a defense job.

Fletcher Kemp Turner (seaman first class) stationed at Norfolk, Va., visited his mother, Sunday.

Corporal John Cox, of Spray, spent the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cox. He is now stationed at Cockran Field, Macon, Ga.

Misses Ruth and Leola Bennett, of Baltimore, spent the past weekend at home near Leaksville.

Sergeant Claude Bennett, who was stationed at Fort Jackson, has been transferred to Headquarters Co., 117th Inf., Benning, Ga.

Miss Carmen Nelson and family spent Sunday near Patrick Springs, Va.

George E. Fuller of the Shipping Department, is out with the flu.

Mrs. Maude Jones and her sister,

Florence Via, attended the Martinsville Fair, Friday night.

Mrs. Levi Phipps was a visitor in town this week.

Mrs. Kate Miller, of Burlington, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Richardson, of Leaksville.

Mrs. Carnell Webb is spending a few weeks with her husband in Wilmington, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Stout, of Greensboro, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Wilson, of Leaksville.

Mrs. Bessie Hankins accompanied her son to Roanoke Sunday to join his company there.

Mrs. Sam Irving spent a few days in Richmond, Va., visiting her daughter, Mrs. S. E. Adcock, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whitten were in Greensboro shopping, Saturday.

Raymond Pruitt, of Newport News, visited in town this week.

Mrs. Velma Causey spent the week with her husband in Jonesboro, N. C.

The Setters were sorry to hear of the death of the former Margaret Fagge.

Miss Sallie Shreve is spending this week in Baltimore, Md., with her sister, Pearl.

Mrs. P. M. Frith, of Rocky Mount, Va., spent the past weekend with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Frith on Harris Street.

Mrs. John Mitchell and Miss Mary Jane Price spent Saturday in Greensboro.

Mrs. Virgil Hall has returned to her home on the Stoneville road after spending two weeks in the local hospital recuperating from severe injuries sustained when she was thrown from a horse. She is improving satisfactorily.

Woolen Mill

Miss Igie McGuire is on the sick list. We wish her a quick recovery.

Mrs. Aubrey Hambrick and two children, David and Leesona, and Mrs. W. D. Harris are spending a few days in Portsmouth with their husbands.

Mrs. Carl Webb is now making her home in Wilmington, in order to be near her husband, who is in officers' training school at Camp Davis.

Mrs. Pearl Kendret and Miss Ruby Sharpe visited Mr. and Mrs. Billy Williams, Sunday.

Mrs. Hazel Humphreys spent the weekend with her husband, John Humphreys, in Reidsville.

Mrs. Aubrey Hambrick and children visited her mother, Mrs. Land, in Danville, Sunday.

George O. Weatherford left for Martinsville on September 21st, where he will be inducted into the army. His many friends wish him the best of luck.

Mrs. James Martin, of Reidsville, was dinner guest of Mrs. Velna Terry, Tuesday.

Mrs. Tom Watkins is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Meadows and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Williams, Carolina Heights.

Mrs. Viola Martin, of Reidsville, was weekend guest of her sister, Mrs. Mary Eanes.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Jones, of Greensboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Terry, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Jones and Mrs. Mary Eanes visited Joe Mary, who is a patient in the Danville hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Patterson announce the birth of a daughter. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas announce the birth of a daughter, born September 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dehart announce the birth of a son, born September 13th.

Paul Flinchum is at home on a 15-day furlough.

Mrs. Ernest Lynch, of Chatham, was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Adkins.

Mrs. Ruby Sharpe recently spent a week with her mother, Mrs. Ben Cayton, of Madison, N. C.

Sheeting Mill

We extend sincerest sympathy to Mrs. Huse Hawks, of the Spooler Room, in the death of her husband which occurred early Friday morning. Mr. Hawks, formerly employed here, had suffered ill health for a number of years but his death was unexpected. He was buried on Sunday.

Miss Pauline Willis and Mrs. E. E. Pruitt spent five days with Mrs. Pruitt's son, Eugene, in Miami, Fla.

Henry Weadon left his position with the company this week to join the Navy. Good luck, Henry.

Mrs. Odell Barber has returned to work after several weeks' illness.

Mrs. Flota Somers and sister, Agnes Foster, visited Mrs. Griggs, of Kannapolis, N. C., last week.

Minnie King attended a church conference in Montgomery, Ala., last week.

Homer Mabes underwent an operation for appendicitis at Leaksville Hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Yeatts were guests of Edward Geringer last Sunday at a birthday dinner in his honor.

Jesse Underwood has transferred from second to first shift.

Nolan McBride also has transferred from second to first shift.

Dillard Shropshire left this week to report for service with Navy.

Henry Carver visited friends in Roanoke, Va., last weekend.

Robert Biggs left this week to report for service with the Navy.

Willie Riddle is absent from work this week due to sickness. Hope he will be back with us soon.

(Continued on Page Eight)