Number Five

Pictured above is the 225th Army Band of Camp Butner, directed by Warrant Officer Chauncey V. Kelley. The band will play for the Tri-City Community Rally to be held Wednesday evening, September 20, at 8 o'clock at the Leaksville high school. This picture was taken while the 225th band was playing the War Bond Show, "Target Berlin." Many of the same numbers will be featured on Wednesday's show. (Official U. S. Army Signal Corps Photo.)

Who Will Be Miss Manufacturing Division?

Every day, often several times a day, we are asked: "Who is Miss Manufacturing Division?" That question will be fully answered soon.

Although the vote wasn't as heavy as we had expected, due in a large measure to the fact that Beauty Pictures issue reached the boys overseas while they were quite busy landing in France, we definitely have a Miss Manufacturing Division and there will be something of real interest about the contest in our next issue. Watch for it!

And we'd like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their interest in the contest and their votes. It was lots of work, also lots of fun, and we are in hopes that we can make the Beauty Contest an annual affair.

CAMP BUTNER SOLDIERS GIVE GOOD SHOW

Approximately 1500 people, at times thrilled, at times convulsed with laughter, witnessed the All-Soldier Show at the Tri-City ball park Wednesday night, September 6. This was the first of three textile rallies that will feature this fine soldier show.

The show really started at 5:30, when the 45 members of the soldier troupe and about an equal number of leading citizens gathered at Meadow Greens to enjoy a delicious picnic supper on the lawn of the club house. Fried chicken, country ham, watermelons, and all the fixings were thoroughly enjoyed.

At 8 o'clock the show started at the ball park. Despite intermittent showers that finally forced a halt to the program, it was unanimously voted one of the best shows to be staged here. Too much cannot be said of the Camp Butner Band, which furnished several numbers of both popular and classical music.

The Camp Butner soldiers will return for the second of the three rallies on September 20. This rally will be held at the Leaksville high school at 8 o'clock on that evening.

A Philadelphia man called up a birdstore the other day and said:

"Send me 30,000 cockroaches at once."

"What in heaven's name do you want with 30,000 cockroaches?"

"Well," replied the householder, "I am moving today and my lease says I must leave the premises here in exactly the same condition in which I found them."
