

ON THE JOB
FOR UNCLE SAM
 A Corner For Our Boys in the Armed Forces.

Thomas B. Brown, S2/C, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Brown, of Carolina Heights. Before entering the service Thomas was employed at the Woolen Mill. He is at present stationed at Bainbridge.
V . . . —

This happy little family group is Pvt. Jesse Hodges, Mrs. Hodges and their little son, Jesse, Jr., taken while Pvt. Hodges was enjoying a short furlough. He is now stationed at Camp Gordon Johnston, Fla.
V . . . —

Private and Mrs. Bunyan Lee Thompson and their fine little son, Harold. We are told that Harold is very proud of his soldier uniform for with it on he "looks just like daddy." You've a right to feel proud, young fellow. Pvt. Thompson is stationed at Camp Chaffee, Ark.
V . . . —

Pfc. Booker Hudson has returned to his base at Camp McCook, Nebraska, after spending a 21-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hudson, Boulevard. Booker is expecting to be sent over pretty soon.

Pvt. Harry Roach, of Draper, was one of the many who entered service two days after last Christmas. He is now at Camp Blanding, Fla. His wife, the former Miss Lillian Hyler, resides in Draper.

We wish this picture was a little larger, but if you look closely you'll recognize that guy bending over the two Chinese lads seated on the ground. It's Lawrence Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Clark, and the soldier seated beside the Chinese boys is Clark's buddy.
V . . . —

You don't have to have a ration certificate to buy all the War Bonds you want.