

CHARTER MEMBERS OF CAROLINA COUNCIL

W. F. Duggins was born in Indiana, came to North Carolina to work in Mayo Mills, Mayodan. Remained there for ten years, went to Charlotte with Dixie Fly Spindle Co. for 2½ years. Employed at the Bedspread in December, 1917. Has worked as electrician, mechanic, and at present is a pipe fitter. Charter member of 25-Year Club, having a continuous service record of approximately 28 years.

Oscar F. Ferguson is one of our real "old timers." Born in Stokes county he came to us in January, 1902, and was employed in the Nantucket mill, where, in September, 1933, he was made foreman of the Weaving department. Transferred to Sheeting mill, July, 1937, as Second Hand. Made foreman Sheeting Weave department in December, 1940, now foreman of Cloth Room. Charter member of the 25-Year Club with the imposing record of 44 years of continuous service.

Paul P. Fleming was born in Martinsville and as a youngster worked as chauffer of the late B. Frank Mebane. Also worked in drug stores. Came to us March, 1916, and was employed in the Bleachery, where, in May, 1933, was made foreman of Grey Room. Transferred to Bleaching and Finishing department as foreman in January, 1942, and is still on that job. Charter member of 25-Year Club, with nearly 30 years of continuous service.

SHEETING MILL

Benjamin Duntan of New York was the guest of his fiancee, Miss Barbara Freeman, for the week-end. Barbara returned to New York with him for a week's visit with his family there.

Malta Faye Hagler has recently become an employee in the Karastan office.

Berkley J. Reynolds has been out sick for a few days.

Some "ole-timers" returning to the Setting Department are Eva K. Hopper, Alvra S. LaMar, Gaynelle F. Joyce, Ruby Crane, and Lena King.

Betty and Martin Turner have moved to their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lem Shelton and Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Smith and Kerwin were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Obie Earles at an oyster supper Saturday.

Cpl. Melvin Ray, brother of Gaynelle Woodall, is home from California with his discharge.

Ethel McCrickard's brother, Joe, is home from Germany with a discharge.

Laura Akers, Cora Pearman, and Norma Pender have been promoted from the classroom to Setting Department floor.

Dan Cupid is a busy worker and the wedding bells rang this week repeatedly. Nancy Hicks was married to Howard Owen at York, S. C., on January 20. Virginia McDaniels was married to Jesse Burcham at Leaksville Moravian parsonage on January 23, and Patsy Corning to John W. Rakestraw at her residence on January 21.

Pfc. Lewis Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cox, has recently been discharged from the Army after two years of service in the Aleutian Islands.

Mrs. Kenneth Frith and Mrs. Jesse Taylor attended the initiation ceremonies at the Masonic Temple in Greensboro Friday evening.

Employees of the Finishing Department express their heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Ruby Moorefield in the death of her mother, Mrs. Harvey.

Thomas Shelton has returned to the Finishing Department since his recent discharge from the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dallas and C. L. Dallas, Jr., were in Washington during the week-end as guests of their brother, Paisley Dallas.

Cliff and Lottie Ball were the guests of Stella and Judy Martin on Friday evening.

To Mary and Catharine Hankins and Garnetta H. Turner the friends in the Setting Department extend their sincere sympathy in the death of their young sister, Nancy.

Chatter vs. Jabber

By Glennice Jones

A lot of us have been wishing for some "June in January" weather, but John Eggleston got so tired of waiting for it, he just took off to Florida. We're expecting to see him back with a glorious tan. We have already "heard tell" of the well-deserved good time he is enjoying.

Have you heard that Ed Martin has to take off his glasses to really notice anything worthwhile?

Becky Pender and Margaret Turman have been ill for a few days.

We have a new name for Mildred Hodges, who has now reached ninety pounds on the scales! Just call her "Fatty."

We finally cornered Jimmy Lamar who stated that the Designing has to guard their secrets! They must have a second atom discovery there, for we can't find out a thing about them!

Did Jesse Burton finally get a haircut after all those trips to Leaksville?

The Addressograph Department enjoyed a scrumptious dinner at Nancy Matlock's home on the seventeenth in honor of her birthday.

It was quite a thrill to have two soldiers visit us at once the other day. They were Dan Cox, who has been visiting in the home of his cousin, Ozelle Harter, and Clyde Dillon, who has been visiting his sister, Lucy Connor.

Lucy has heard that her brother, Jabe Dillon, is at Fort Bragg.

"Humpty Dumpty" had a great fall, but our own Nancy Matlock had one, too, when the beautiful bed fell, when she went visiting the other night.

Those wings are so bright that we could hardly tell just what was coming, but imagine our surprise when we saw Elaine Nance and it was she who was wearing them!

We haven't started a bureau of any kind! No! But Christine Martin would like to meet the young man, too! Yes, red is very becoming, we agree.
