110 employees of R. H. Macy & Company, the world's largest store, were guests of Marshall Field & Company, Manufacturing Division, on March 13th at the Hotel New Yorker. Following dinner the entire group saw the motion picture, "The Crest of Quality," which shows how Fieldcrest blankets, sheets, towels, and bedspreads are manufactured. This is the film you saw being made in our mills last fall and which was shown last week in Leaksville, Spray, Draper and Fieldale.

During 1946 salespeople in 100 of America's finest stores will be meeting in groups like this to see how Marshall Field & Company people put quality into Fieldcrest merchandise.
