

55 EMPLOYEES RETIRE UNDER PENSION PLAN

A complete list by mills of the employees who were retired on pension by Marshall Field and company, Manufacturing Division, June 30, is carried below, along with the employee classification and length of service:

Bedsread Mill

Ollie Moricle, spooler hand, 13 years, one month.
J. P. Pearman, sweeper, 23 years, six months.
Robert H. Pulliam, watchman, 17 years, six months.
George Via, dye hand, 15 years.
Cabell P. Wall, superintendent, 46 years, six months.

Blanket Mill

Columbus M. Carter, gate keeper, 26 years, eight months.
Alexander J. Combs, card feeder, 17 years, two months.
George W. Flanagan, elevator, 24 years, nine months.
Charlie M. Harris, watchman, 23 years, eight months.
Sam W. Harvey, oiler, 18 years, seven months.
Sam Jackson, sanitary man, 23 years, three months.
Emory Murray, card feeder, 13 years, 11 months.
J. M. Purdy, plumber, 29 years, one month.
William R. Smith, card feeder, 21 years, eight months.
William A. Wilson, watchman, 18 years, 10 months.

Bleachery

Annie E. Roberts, head inspector, 13 years.

Central Supply

John E. Williams, supply room clerk, 45 years, one month.

Central Warehouse

Nelson A. McBride, foreman, 47 years, six months.
Allie M. Williams, ticket and bag blankets, 35 years, seven months.

Finishing Mill

Jesse T. Bryant, napper operator, 21 years, nine months.
Stowell S. Dodson, watchman, 12 years, eight months.
James A. Edwards, head maintenance, 40 years, seven months.
State Alice Farris, sewing, 30 years, 10 months.
Joanna T. Hardy, folder, 13 years, 10 months.
Benjamin F. Lee, machinist, 15 years, five months.
Sam J. Robertson, watchman, 18 years, three months.
R. L. Simpson, No. 1 carpenter, 22 years, five months.
Willie J. Wade, assistant foreman, 24 years, seven months.

General Office

Ernest D. Pitcher, office finance officer, 61 years, five months.

William B. Wilson, office cashier, 44 years, eight months.

Karastan Mill

Rufus L. Carter, frame fixer, 23 years, three months.
E. F. Clarke, engineer, 23 years, six months.
Charlie L. Grogan, spool bin hand, 22 years, eight months.
Sallie C. McCulloch, fringer, 18 years, three months.
W. H. Owens, foreman, 48 years, six months.

Rayon Mill

Ernest E. Check, supply keeper, 21 years, nine months.
Jasper I. Johnston, foreman, 35 years, nine months.
Numa H. McCollum, clerk, 17 years, five months.

Sales Office—Chicago

A. S. Heath, 41 years, 10 months.

Sheeting Mill

Robert J. Pratt, 20 years, five months.

Spray Civic Association

Abner J. Terry, laborer, 9 years, four months.

Towel Mill

Otway F. Barbour, watchman, 20 years, eight months.
Gillivan T. Carter, roller coverer, 27 years, one month.
Will C. Cress, weaver, 10 years, nine months.
John F. Dalton, supply carrier, 26 years, five months.
James H. Going, gate watchman, 27 years, 11 months.
George B. Hairston, laborer, 23 years, four months.
Charlie L. Merriman, gate watchman, 25 years.
John W. Nunn, dryer, 10 years, 11 months.

Woolen Mill

Robert W. Cox, quill collector, 22 years, six months.
Henry A. Earles, watchman, 23 years, eight months.
Monroe Fields, watchman, 45 years, four months.
Charlie W. Fowler, sweeper, 42 years, six months.
Percy T. Hailey, assistant foreman, 24 years, two months.
Charlie A. Pulliam, watchman, 39 years, nine months.

Pitcher Retires With Long Service Record

In ceremonies at the luncheon for retiring employees last Monday, Luther H. Hodges, vice-president of the Company and general manager of the Manufacturing Division, is shown above at right as he congratulated E. D. Pitcher, finance officer who retired with pension after serving Marshall Field and Company 61 years and six months. Other officials in the picture are Harold W. Whitcomb, divisional vice-president of the Company and assistant general manager of the Manufacturing Division, at left; J. Frank Wilson, production manager, in center background; and Ben C. Trotter, Manufacturing Division representative on the retirement committee, at right.