

Scout Finance Campaign Starts Today

The Boy and Girl Scouts shown above typify the hundreds of Tri-City youth who are participating in the Scout movement. J. Frank Wilson is general chairman of the Scout Finance Campaign which begins today (November 11), and ends Thursday, November 14.

At left is Dixie Royster, of Troop 6, Spray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Royster. At right is Boris O'Mansky, assistant patrol leader, Troop 8, Leaksville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice O'Mansky.

Bleachery News

By Charlotte Martin

We welcome to the Bleachery Pauline H. Burch. Welcome, and hope you like your new work, Pauline!

The following people are out sick: Mary Ann Rae, Katie Land, and Pearl Dean.

Those who have returned to work are Ethel Butler and Hilda Austin.

Mrs. P. G. Meeks and Mrs. P. M. Thornton visited their sister, Mrs. M. E. Roberts, in Reidsville over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Luther and Mrs. Flora Stegall visited Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards in Kingston, W. Va.

Elizabeth Meeks enjoyed the Duke-Georgia Tech football game at Durham Saturday.

Mrs. John A. Martin, Jimmie, Billy, and Barbara Ann Martin, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin and children were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur French of Danville over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck McCollum spent the week-end in Roanoke.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Pendleton and family visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Pendleton, of near Stuart.

Mr. Joe Austin of Martinsville, formerly machine fixer in the Bleachery, visited his brother, Guy Austin, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Robertson visited relatives in Princeton and Bluefield, West Virginia, last week.

Mrs. Ora Atkins and Mrs. Hazel Blackburn were shoppers in Greensboro recently.

Agriculture and industry each occupies and employs the effort of more than one-fifth of our population. Together they supply half of all the jobs made in America.
