

High School Students To Act As Officials Of Fieldcrest Mills Monday Afternoon

Boys And Girls Will Become Executives And Secretaries As Feature Of Community Week

High school students of the Tri-Cities will act as officials of Fieldcrest Mills Monday afternoon, October 13 as a feature of Fieldcrest Community Week. Seniors at Leaksville and Draper high schools were named this week to occupy top positions in Fieldcrest management, with high school girls named to serve as secretaries for each of the student executives.

Eleven boys and eleven girls from Leaksville high school were appointed to positions in the mills and office in Leaksville and Spray. Four boys and five girls were named at Draper high school for positions at Draper. The fifth girl chosen at Draper will act as nurse of the Draper dispensary of the Fieldcrest Medical department.

The entire group will lunch with the real officials and secretaries at the Y. M. C. A. Fieldcrest cafeteria at 1 p. m. Following the luncheon the group will split up and return to their respective mills and offices where the students will be "in charge" during the afternoon.

Students were named as follows:

From Leaksville high school:

- Assistant General Manager, Richard Thomas
- Secretary ..... Shirley Hawkins
- Manager, Bedsread Mills, James Jones
- Secretary ..... Margaret Davis
- Manager, Rayon and Woolen Mills, John Hall
- Secretary ..... Betty Baker
- Manager, Karastan Mill, Don Fulcher
- Secretary ..... Doris Fisher
- Superintendent, Rayon Mill, Carlisle Campbell
- Secretary ..... Jewel Cooper
- Superintendent, Karastan Mill, John Cox
- Secretary ..... Virginia Hudgins
- Superintendent, Woolen Mill, Joe Ziglar
- Secretary ..... Genevieve Shelton
- Superintendent, Embroidered Bedsread Mill, James Burgess
- Secretary ..... Mildred Hedrick
- Superintendent, Finishing Mill and Bleachery, Tommy Fulcher
- Secretary ..... Irene Aheron
- Superintendent, Woven Bedsread Mill, Hal Shinn
- Secretary ..... Genievieve Stowe
- Superintendent, Central Warehouse, Bobby Houchins
- Secretary ..... Pauline Shorter

From Draper high school:

- Manager, Blanket, Sheeting and Finishing Mills, Bleachery and Central Warehouse, Kenneth Mostella
- Secretary ..... Rivers Heffinger
- Superintendent, Blanket and Sheeting Mills, Bobby Spencer
- Secretary ..... Jeanette Shelton
- Assistant Superintendent, Blanket Mill, Connie Mangrum
- Secretary ..... Ruby Maness
- Assistant Superintendent, Sheeting Mill, Bobby Reece
- Secretary ..... Ruth McDaniel
- Nurse, Draper dispensary, Doris Spain

President McBain

(Continued from Page One)

March 10, 1936, assuming the duties of assistant general manager of the Chicago & Suburban Stores. He became first vice-president and a director of the Company in 1938, and was in charge of the Manufacturing Division during 1938 and 1939. On April 5, 1940, he returned to the Retail Division and was appointed general manager of the Chicago & Suburban Stores. He was elected president of the Company on February 2, 1943.

President McBain was born in 1902 in Grand Rapids, Mich. He attended elementary and preparatory school in Grand Rapids and later the University of Michigan. Active in both indoor and outdoor sports, Company 25-Year-Man McBain plays golf, tennis, and curling—particularly the latter, a sport at which he, like all Scots, believes himself to be at his best.

He is one of the most civic-minded of all Field presidents, serving or having served as a director or trustee of the Chicago Association of Commerce, the Chicago Chapter of the American Red Cross, the Children's Memorial Hospital, the State Street Council, and the Chicago Natural History Museum.

The McBains have three children—two daughters, 15 and 16, and a son, 19.

Notice To Readers

The "Buy, Sell, Swap" column is conducted as a service to employees. There is no charge for the ads and employees are invited to send in notices of small articles for sale or trade on a personal basis. Lost and found ads also are invited.

No ads for real estate, livestock, or automobiles can be accepted nor can ads from dealers, agents, or other commercial organizations be published.

Public Invited To Visit All Plants Wednesday, Oct. 15

The plants of Fieldcrest Mills in Leaksville, Spray, Draper and Fielddale, Va., will be thrown open to the public Wednesday, Oct. 15, from 1 to 10 p. m. as the mills hold "open house" as a feature of Fieldcrest Community Week. The general public is invited to visit the plants on this date. The mills will be in operation during the visitations.

Persons who wish to visit the Finishing Mill at Spray are requested to visit this particular plant between 1 and 6 p. m. since part of the operations are on a one-shift basis. Colored citizens are invited to visit any of the Tri-City plants Thursday, October 16, from 9 to 11 a. m. and 4 to 6 p. m.

Special tours have been arranged during the morning hours for school children to visit the mills. Also, special invitations have gone out from the management inviting all employees and their families and friends to visit the mills.

The following committees to have charge of the visitations have been appointed:

Leaksville Mills: Jones Norman, chairman; Virgil Hall, Sam Anderson, Wade Younts, Ed Cobb, Berkeley Reynolds, and Bill Richardson.

Spray Mills: R. L. Wilkes, chairman; G. C. Truslow, C. P. Wilson, Howard Barton, J. G. Halsey, J. F. Byrd, Frank Sutfenfield.

Draper Mills: H. J. Vernon, chairman; Dave Purcell, Al Davis, Reuben Garrett, Ralph Going, Ed Barksdale.

Fielddale, Va., Mills: J. M. Rimmer, E. H. Goode, Taylor Ingram, Neill Dalrymple, Dave Simons.

Invitation To Public

All church congregations and the general public are invited to attend the devotional service at the Leaksville High School auditorium Sunday night, October 19, at 7:45 o'clock which will bring to a close the Fieldcrest Mills management conference on "Looking Ahead in Our Public Relations."

No tickets are required for admission to this meeting. The program will be broadcast over Station WLOE, Leaksville, starting at 8 P. M.

Dr. George D. Heaton, pastor of Myers Park Baptist church, Charlotte, will be the speaker for the devotional service, of which J. O. Thomas is chairman.

Following Dr. Heaton's address on "The Nature of Community," Luther H. Hodges, vice-president of Marshall Field & Company and general manager of Fieldcrest Mills, will speak briefly in closing the conference.