

Draper News

(Continued from Page Three)

the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Winn of Fieldale, Va.

Guy Thomasson visited his son who is ill in the hospital.

We're glad to have Oscar Barber back after an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Fannie Setliff is a patient in Leaksville hospital.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Chaney announce the arrival of a son, Gene Albert, in the Leaksville Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Roberts announce the arrival of a daughter, Teresa Lynn, October 26 in the Leaksville Hospital.

Sympathy

We extend our deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hundley, whose son, Elrin, was killed in Korea.

Couple Observe 70th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Rorrer of Buffalo Ridge, Va., celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary Sunday. They had open house from 12 noon until 6 p. m. Many friends called to congratulate this grand couple. They have 17 children who attended the occasion. Among those who called were Mrs. Green Hall and Vernon Hall of Draper.

Wedding Anniversaries

Congratulations to the following who have had wedding anniversaries:

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Stone.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hatcher.
Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Ramsey.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hall.

Birthday Dinner

Mrs. J. S. Page was given a birthday dinner in her home October 29 in honor of her 67th birthday. A bountiful dinner was prepared. Mrs. Page is a retired employe of Fieldcrest Mills.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cochran and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Medford and son, Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Page of Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. Roy French of Reidsville, Mr. and Mrs. Summers of Reidsville, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Hall and family of Reidsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Garland Hall of Reidsville.

Eight of her grandchildren were present.

We wish for Mrs. Page many more happy birthdays.

Party for Son

Mrs. Beulah Gillespie gave a party in honor of her son, Kenneth, who has been on leave from the Navy.

You're getting older, brother, when you'd rather not have a good time than have to get over it.

Karastan Walker One Year Old Now

Daniel Karastan Walker was one year old on September 23, 1949. He is shown here in a picture made when he was seven months old. This picture was

Karastan Walker

Because of his unusual name, "Karastan," the handsome youngster received a good deal of publicity following his birth last fall. Both of his parents work at the Karastan Rug Mill. His father, Rex Walker, works in the weave room and his mother, Bertha Walker, in the Karastan setting.

RAYON MILL

(By Virginia Hurd)

Our best wishes go to Webster Patterson in his new undertaking. Mr. Patterson is studying for the ministry at Fruitland Baptist Assembly, Hendersonville.

It's nice to see Lillie Mae Robertson and Leona Heffinger back on the job after leaves of absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pulliam are proud parents of a daughter, Elizabeth Allen.

Welcome to Russell Burchell, a new employee in the Preparation Dept.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Warner entertained the Loyal Sons and Daughters class of the Brethren Church at a Hallowe'en party October 28. From the group of 27 Hansy Hankins was awarded a prize for the best costume. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Jenkins spent last week-end in Kings Mountain visiting his mother.

Mrs. Lottie Land and family were among those who enjoyed the circus in Greensboro recently.

TALL TOBACCO:—The picture at left shows Janice Woodall, granddaughter of T. B. Chaney, of the Finishing Mill Boiler Plant. She's holding two tobacco leaves as long as she is tall. At right is Mr. Chaney shown in his tobacco field. Some of his tobacco reached a height of 7 feet.

GOOD CATCH:—Mrs. H. F. Reavis and Mrs. Lem Wright of the Towel Mill weave room are shown with eight and ten-pound catfish, caught at Toano, near Williamsburg, Va., on a recent fishing trip with their husbands, who caught some smaller ones.

"TOWN DRAG" Fieldale News

(By Faye Warren)

"Spider" Stultz leaving for service with Uncle Sam.

Mr. and Mrs. William Merriman observing their 25th wedding anniversary.

Ruby Joyce and Nettie Haynes returning to work in the Sewing Dept.

Mrs. J. W. Pickup, Elizabeth Morris and Gaither Overbey vocalizing in that Sunday Vesper service.

Juanita Hundley entertaining her bridge club.

Edress Looney recuperating nicely from a recent operation.

Mildred Compton attending a luncheon at Club Martinique.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Arnold losing their daughter by the vows of matrimony.

Mary Elizabeth Minter attending an alumni get-together.

Dave Simons being mighty proud of that bouncing baby boy.

Ted and Homer Price enjoying the appearance of their picture in a recent "Whistle." So did all their neighbors.

Neli Shelton recuperating nicely from a recent eye operation.

Police Officer J. A. Steagall being the first officer to reach the scene of last Wednesday's blast.

Connie Morrison losing out on a little bet.

Sympathy

The entire organization expresses sympathy to the family of the late Mrs. Sallie McCollum.

Advertisement in a Manitoba (Canada) paper:

Farmer, aged 38, wishes to meet a girl around 30 years old who owns a tractor. Please enclose picture of tractor.

FIELDCREST MILL WHISTLE