Veterans Receive All Mutual Aid Benefits

Board of Directors Clears Up Misunderstanding of Revised By-laws

Some misunderstanding has arisen concerning the benefits for veterans under the revised by-laws of the United Mutual Aid Association. In explanation of the section pertaining to veterans the Board of Directors has pointed out that veterans and their dependents are entitled to ALL benefits of the Mutual Aid Association.

However, the Association will not reimburse the Veterans Administration for hospitalization or surgical benefits received by a member in a Veterans' hospital, the reason for this being that use of veterans hospitals is furnished all veterans without cost by the United States Government.

This applies only in cases where the member goes to a veterans hospital. If any other hospital is used, then the veteran is entitled to all benefits of the Mutual Aid Association.

The revised by-laws have been adopted by the membership to become effective January 1, 1951. The chief revisions are increased non-surgical benefits, an adjustment in dues and a new method of electing unit committeemen.
